Reading with Robert Munsch Gr. 1-3 Kathleen Rodgers, Reading with Author Series Here is a resource to help your students develop the literacy strategies necessary to derive meaning from print and illustrations read to find new information about a topic and think and write creatively all using the books of Robert Munsch as a springboard 66 page What teachers are saying about this resource Good resource Jamie G Great resource to use when doing a Robert Munsch unit Lynsay F Includes Teacher suggestions Story Summaries Comprehension Word Study y as a vowel initial and final consonants digraphs initial consonant substitution hard and soft c hard and soft g double vowels double letters Word Study word meaning alphabetical order antonyms plurals suffixes s ed ing suffixes er est verbs adjectives compound words homonyms rhyming words syllabication In section C Thinking About the Story the children are asked to compare something in the story to their own lives i.e. retell something they did with their parents siblings or grandparents or to evaluate and analyze why a character behaved the way he or she did and to predict what will happen next time

The Paper Bag Princess by Robert Munsch Jean Jamieson, 2000 Novel units provide teachers with new ways to teach reading thinking writing and the love for literature

Literacy David Wray, 2004 This four volume collection reprints key debates about exactly what it means to be literate and how literacy can best be taught Rather than centering on the emotional reaction of mass media debates this set focuses on research findings into processes and pedagogy The themes covered include Literacy its nature and its teaching Reading processes and teaching Writing processes and teaching and New Literacies the impact of technologies

Favorites, Friendships, Food, and Fantasy Ann Lukasevich, 1994 Each unit in this book is built around a literature based theme The lessons in each unit include cooperative learning activities that reinforce skills in language arts science social studies mathematics music art and drama Grades K 1 256 pp Lessons in Comprehension Frank Serafini, 2004 Serafini has created a teaching treasure trove that contains nearly a year's worth of comprehension instruction plus an extensive list of children's literature that he has successfully woven into his own reading workshop Lessons in Comprehension introduces and reinforces meaning-making concepts through eight broad thematic strands that scaffold understanding and responsibility for novice readers Teaching Reading Comprehension Trevor Cairney, 1990 Offers a definition of comprehension instruction in which the teacher's role consists of supporting and encouraging the reader to an enhanced engagement with the text The book stresses the use of whole texts group collaborations and integrated reading with other forms of reading Teaching Reading Comprehension Processes Judith Westphal Irwin, 2007 The Third Edition of Teaching Reading Comprehension Processes is a comprehensive and eclectic book on teaching reading comprehension in the elementary grades The overarching goal of this text is to encourage critical thinking and to challenge readers to examine preconceived ideas and beliefs about teaching comprehension This well researched text is a comprehensive overview of how the relationship among reader text and situation affects the reading process and why comprehension takes place The Third Edition explores various and contending schools of thought in reading comprehension research and successfully gives students perspective on the socio-cultural influences on reading comprehension Opening Minds Peter H. Johnston, 2012 Sometimes a single word changes everything In his groundbreaking book Choice Words Peter Johnston demonstrated how the things teachers say and don't say have surprising consequences for the literate lives of students Now in Opening Minds Using Language to Change Lives Peter shows how the words teachers choose affect the worlds students inhabit in the classroom and ultimately their futures He explains how to engage children with more productive talk and to create classrooms that support not only students intellectual development but their development as human beings Grounded in research Opening Minds Using Language to Change Lives shows how words can shape students learning their sense of self and their social emotional and moral development Make no mistake words have the power to open minds or close them The Paper Bag Princess Kai-leé Berke, Robert N. Munsch, 2010

Literacy for the 21st Century Gail Tompkins, Rod Campbell, David Green, Carol Smith, 2014-08-01 Literacy for the 21st Century 2e gives students the strategies and ability to teach literacy effectively in Australian classrooms Linking the theory and research to classroom practice and with a greater emphasis on the use of digital literacies students will gain a practical understanding of teaching reading and writing A Literature Kit for The Paper Bag Princess by Robert N. Munsch Marie-Helen Goyette, 2007 A Literature Kit This is the story of Princess Elizabeth who is in love with Prince Ronald and they plan to soon marry One day a terrible dragon smashes Elizabeth's castle burns her clothes and disappears with her Prince Ronald Everything is burnt so she wears a paper bag and sets off to go get him She outwits the dragon by challenging him Exhausted by all the activity the dragon falls fast asleep Elizabeth steps over the dragon goes into the cave and rescues

Prince Ronald Astonished by his reaction she tells him his clothes are pretty and his hair is tidy but in fact hes a bum They dont get married after all

Teaching Children to Read Douglas Ray Reutzel,Robert B. Cooter,2004 For Elementary Reading Methods courses This comprehensive and balanced look at literacy practice has long been one of the most popular reading methods texts available The text begins by introducing seven principles for comprehensive reading instruction and then explains the theoretical foundations of teaching reading Part I builds on those foundations with specific methods in Part II and then in Part III it describes how to create a variety of learning centers and how to plan developmentally appropriate reading curriculum for students in both K 3 and 4 8 classrooms chapters 12 and 13 provide a continuum of knowledge by describing classroom organization and curriculum for grades 4 6 and 6 8

Reading Problems Margaret Ann Richek,2002 This book combines new and time tested approaches to reading problems by adding usable instructional strategies assessment tools research and an actual Informal Reading Inventory The book distills many different approaches to teaching students with reading problems presenting them in an approachable balanced and readable format Early chapters present general information on the reading process problem readers assessment and the principles of instruction Later chapters provide in depth information on strategies for teaching various parts of the literacy process and conclude with chapters detailing successful intervention programs and teaching in diverse and inclusive settings Reading Problems is extremely practical presenting many informal assessment tools and strategies Yet it also presents research on intervention programs multicultural strategies and extensive descriptions of tests The needs of adolescents and adults are also emphasized For educators of grades K 3 parents or anyone interested in literacy assessment and teaching strategies

The Essentials of Teaching Children to Read D. Ray Reutzel,Robert B. Cooter,2005 Teaching Children to Read has always been well known for its comprehensive look at literacy instruction This streamlined edition of that text has been developed to provide readers a brief version that offers essential information about reading instruction based on research that aligns with No Child Left Behind directives The focus of this book is how to teach phonemic awareness phonics comprehension vocabulary fluency and ongoing classroom assessment Special features include A theory chapter to ground literacy background knowledge An infusion of the most current research available to inform practice and all five No Child Left Behind initiatives regarding phonemic awareness phonics comprehension vocabulary and fluency A newly organized assessment chapter presenting four purposes of assessment as identified by Reading First legislation including outcome assessment screening instruments diagnostic assessment tools and ongoing progress monitoring assessments

Literature Comes Alive Kari K. Wissler,2003

Reading Problems Joyce Holt Jennings,JoAnne Schudt Caldwell,Janet W. Lerner,2006 Would the world be a better place if human societies were somehow able to curb their desires for material goods Saleem Ali s pioneering book links human wants and needs by providing a natural history of consumption and materialism with scientific detail and humanistic nuance It argues that simply disavowing consumption of materials is not likely to help in planning for a resource scarce future given global inequality development imperatives and our goals for a democratic global society Rather than suppress the creativity and desire to discover that is often embedded in the exploration and production of material goods which he calls the treasure impulse Ali proposes a new environmental paradigm one that accepts our need to consume treasure for cultural and developmental reasons but warns of our concomitant need to conserve In evaluating the impact of treasure consumption on resource rich countries he argues that there is a way to consume responsibly and alleviate global poverty Thinking Through Genre Heather Lattimer,2003 Supports English teachers who seek to engage their students in genre studies in the reading and writing workshop The book profiles six different units of study memoir feature article editorial short story fairy tale and response to literature Each study is set in an individual fifth through tenth grade classroom and is described from its theoretical foundations through the planning for the specific needs of the students to the teaching and finally evaluation
