Parallel Lives Plutarch, 2018-11-02 This eBook has been formatted to the highest digital standards and adjusted for readability on all devices Lives of the Noble Grecians and Romans or Parallel Lives is a series of biographies of famous men arranged in tandem to illuminate their common moral virtues or failings probably written at the beginning of the second century AD by Plutarch Parallel Lives comprises 23 pairs of biographies each pair consisting of one Greek and one Roman as well as four unpaired single lives It is a work of considerable importance not only as a source of information about the individuals described but also about the times in which they lived Volume I contains 13 pairs of biographies from Theseus and Romulus to Cimon and Lucullus with comparisons Parallel Lives - Vol. 4 Plutarch, 2012-12-17 The final volume of D Artagnan Romances it is usually split into four parts The Vicomte de Bragelonne Ten Years Later Louise de la Valliere and the final portion is entitled The Man in the Iron Mask Parallel Lives - Vol. 2 Plutarch, 2012-12-17 Ever since my fortunate or shall I say unfortunate connection with that famous case of murder in Gramercy Park I have had it intimated to me by many of my friends and by some who were not my friends that no woman who had met with such success as myself in detective work would ever be satisfied with a single display of her powers and that sooner or later I would find myself again at work upon some other case of striking peculiarities As vanity has never been my foible and as moreover I never have forsaken and never am likely to forsake the plain path marked out for my sex at any other call than that of duty I invariably responded to these insinuations by an affable but incredulous smile striving to excuse the presumption of my friends by remembering their ignorance of my nature and the very excellent reasons I had for my one notable interference in the police affairs of New York City Besides though I appeared to be resting quietly if not in entire contentment on my laurels I was not so utterly removed from the old atmosphere of crime and its detection as the world in general considered me to be Mr Gryce still visited me not on business of course but as a friend for whom I had some regard and naturally our conversation was not always confined to the weather or even to city politics provocative as the latter subject is of wholesome controversy
