Encyclopaedia Universalis ,1970 Political Education in the Anthropocene Nathanaël Wallenhorst,Renaud Hétier,Jean-Philippe Pierron,Christoph Wulf,2023-10-19 This book articulates an educational theory as well as a political theory of the Anthropocene Divided into three sections it addresses educational anthropology cultures and institutions and educational recommendations in the Anthropocene Topics covered in the volume measure the impact of the idea of the Anthropocene on the type of anthropology that underlies education and on a phenomenology of relationship It links the notion of the Anthropocene with cultures and institutions so as not to smooth out or erase the latter Finally it presents proposals and recommendations for educational practices The work advocates rethinking education as an essential component in ensuring the sustainability of human life in society by proposing to go beyond the approach of education for sustainable development or environmental education The work also brings together empirical contributions in which proposals are elaborated for programs pedagogical devices and experiments relating to the preparation of the future in the field of education This volume is of interest to researchers of the Anthropocene Encyclopaedia universalis ,1968

The Christological Metaphors of Wine, Water, and Bread in the Gospel of John in Relation to Their Sapiential Background Michał Filip Powęska,2024-12-09 When focusing on the sapiential traits in text of the Fourth Gospel it should be noted that in its images of wine water and bread connected by the common theme of eating and drinking one can see Jesus the Giver who like the Old Testament personified wisdom bestows his gifts on man Although single references to the Old Testament sapiential texts have been suggested for the Johannine images of wine water bread light and the vine no detailed study of these images as well as their juxtapositions even in the aspect of eating and drinking has been published so far The selected topic seems to be important for showing a comprehensive approach to the Johannine banquet motif in its sapiential aspect broken down into particular Johannine images which are the events related to wine water and bread It is ultimately significant to present Jesus full identity through these three metaphors referring to the personified and preexisting wisdom as described in the Old Testament sapiential literature The Industrial Revolution-Lost in Antiquity-Found in the Renaissance Cort MacLean Johns, Ph.D.-HSG,2019-10-23 The Industrial Revolution Lost in Antiquity Found in the Renaissance is a revisionist well researched work being a definitive account of the historical roots of the Industrial Revolution that began with Ctesibius in 270 BC at the onset of the Hellenistic Period and continued on with the invention of the steam engine by James Watt in 1776 and Oliver Evans in the early 19th century encompassing almost 2000 years of history Encyclopaedia universalis ,1991 Encyclopaedia universalis ,1991 Pragmatic Inquiry John R. Bowen,Nicolas Dodier,Jan Willem Duyvendak,Anita Hardon,2020-10-08 This book examines a range of critical concepts that are central to a shift in the social sciences toward pragmatic inquiry reflecting a twenty first century concern with particular problems and themes rather than grand theory Taking a transnational and transdisciplinary approach the collection demonstrates a shared commitment to using analytical concepts for empirical exploration and a general orientation to research that favors an attention to objects techniques and practices The chapters draw from broad based and far reaching social theory in order to analyze new specific challenges from grasping the everyday workings of markets courtrooms and clinics to inscribing the transformations of practice within research disciplines themselves Each contributor takes a key concept and then explores its genealogies and its circulations across scholarly communities as well as its proven payoffs for the social sciences and often critical reflections on its present and future uses This carefully crafted volume will significantly expand and improve the analytical repertoires or toolkits available to social scientists including scholars in sociology or anthropology and those working in science and technology studies public health and related fields The Western Herbal Tradition E-Book Graeme Tobyn, Alison Denham, Margaret Whitelegg, 2010-11-12 The Western Herbal Tradition provides a comprehensive and critical exploration of the use of plant medicines through 2000 years of history from Dioscorides to the present day It follows each of the 27 herbs through a wide range of key sources from European Arabic and American traditions including Greek Roman and Renaissance texts A rich discussion of the historical texts is balanced with current application and research The herbs have been selected on the basis of common use by practising herbalists Each illustrated monograph contains Species identification and botanical description A study of the characterisation and medicinal use of the plants consistently drawn from featured herbals which includes the authors own translations from the Latin Assessment of past and current texts in the transmission of herbal knowledge Consideration of traditional therapeutics including humoral and physiomedical approaches Suggestions towards a modern experiential approach through Goethean methodology Current evidence on pharmacological constituents Review of evidence on safety Recommendations for internal and external uses prescribing and dosage Excellent illustrations accompany each monograph to aid learning First book to cover broader historical perspective and discussions of issues surrounding each herb Written by leading experts who are well known in the field Includes some monographs of which there is little material already available The bibliographic evidence provided could support applications for registration of Herbal Medicinal Products under the provisions of the Traditional Herbal Medicinal Product Directive An excellent valuable resource for everyone interested in herbal medicine Encyclopaedia universalis ,1993 International Literary Market Place Information Today Inc, 2005-12 For book publishing contacts on a global scale International Literary Market Place 2006 is your ticket to the people companies and resources at the heart of publishing in more than 180 countries world wide from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe With the flip of a page you ll find completely up to date profiles for more than 16 500 book related concerns around the globe including 10 500 publishers and literary agents 1 100 major booksellers and book clubs 1 500 major libraries and library associations and thousands of other book related concerns such as trade organizations distributors dealers literary associations trade publications book trade events and other resources conveniently organized in a country by country format Plus ILMP 2006 includes two publisher indexes Types of
