Runner's World ,1993      Our Stock Is Rising Gregory A. Powell,2023-11-10 I spent the early years researching the topic The goal was to teach them as I learned and to stay one step ahead of my classes I took them to see the experts at Key Bank and the Wright State University School of Business As time went on the experts came to us The late Ellis Rowe former VP Mars Inc and Theo Killion former CEO Zales flew in from Jacksonville and Chicago respectively just to share a few of their valuable hours for what they both found to be an invaluable experience This book is written by a teacher for teachers Unlike other books of its kind this one s not written by an expert in the field of investment financing Quite frankly I saw in this project such a sense of urgency that the need for it to be delivered by experts whenever they became available was outweighed by the need for it to be delivered in the here and now Our Stock Is Rising is a metaphor that speaks not just to the disenfranchised but to all the little kids in all the neighborhoods outside New York s famed Financial District It says that we are not always too young And that the things we are allowed to be challenged by in our youth won t be the things that deny us a place at the table as adults      Financial Disclosure Reports of Members of the U.S. House of Representatives for the Period Between January 1, 2009 and December 31, 2009 United States. Gibson, Mark Lowes, 2007 City leaders now confront a global competition for economic investment and urban elites are casting about for strategies that promise to secure a share of this future of global economic growth. However, many of these strategies are largely symbolic in nature. City leaders, for example, compete for the Olympics so they can broadcast spectacular urban vistas to global television audiences. Officials pour public funds into tourist amenities to cultivate an image of vitality and renewal. But how are the local politics of urban redevelopment intertwined with the global politics of circulating vital urban images? Urban Communication brings together scholars from communication, cultural studies, and urban sociology to explore the symbolic dimensions of contemporary city building, drawing on case studies from around the world.
