Micromuseology Analysis Small Independent Museums:

Micromuseology Fiona Candlin, 2015-12-17 During the 1970s and 1980s thousands of micromuseums opened in the UK Europe and North America Small independent and dedicated to single subjects such as Romany life diesel engines or asparagus they have transformed the sector but have had little impact on the study of museums which has remained almost exclusively focused on major institutions In Micromuseology Fiona Candlin argues that researching the Bakelite Museum or the Museum of Witchcraft instead of the Louvre or the British Museum offers a radically new perspective to the dominant debates within museum studies Introducing Museum Studies Gordon Fyfe, 2025-06-17 Introducing Museum Studies is the first introductory textbook for museum studies Providing a wide ranging and original overview of museums from a historical and contemporary perspective it covers key topics such as the history of the museum the museum as a public space visitors and communities The book shows how museums far from being neutral collections exhibit objects which convey powerful symbolic meanings This cultural turn away from the object as a thing in itself has placed museums at the centre of debates about public culture citizenship inclusion and repatriation Museums are becoming increasingly reflexive given the awareness of the social and political role they serve and their ability to reflect the problems of our time Gordon Fyfe shows how and why this reflexivity creates a need for historical perspective on current practices on the one hand museums are enmeshed in a changing world and on the other hand they exhibit change At their best museums help us to see that everything is on the move and that change is the natural order of things Accessibly written this is the go to introduction for scholars and students of museum studies arts and cultural management and heritage studies The Sustainable Museum Christopher J. Garthe, 2022-11-30 The Sustainable Museum is the first book to outline a coherent strategy for the direction of museums as it relates to sustainability in the museum and heritage sector Arguing that museums must place sustainability at the centre of all their activities if they are to become key actors with a clear societal role Garthe considers the issues that museums will likely face as they take on their new roles Presenting case studies from a wide range of museums around the world the book considers different ways of implementing sustainability in different types and sizes of institutions Whilst the book clearly outlines the need for change it also provides guidance about how to change Garthe does this by considering specific concepts and approaches to sustainability in relation to the different aspects of museum operations The book includes a hands on manual for implementing sustainability management in a museum whilst also considering the challenges practitioners will encounter and considering what the future of the sustainable museum might look like The Sustainable Museum will be essential reading for museum and heritage professionals around the globe The book will also be of interest to academics and students engaged in the study of museums arts and cultural management business administration change management or sustainable development Famines and the Making of Heritage Marguérite Corporaal, Ingrid de Zwarte, 2024-06-05 Famines and the Making of Heritage is the first book to bring together groundbreaking research on the role of European famines in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in relation to heritage making museology commemoration education and monument creation Featuring contributions from famine experts across Europe and North America the volume adopts a pioneering transnational perspective and discusses issues such as contestable and repressed heritage materiality dark tourism education on famines oral history multidirectional memory and visceral empathy Questioning why educational curricula and practices in schools and on heritage sites are region or nation oriented or transnational chapters also consider whether they emphasise conflict or mutual understanding Contributions also consider how present issues of European concern such as globalisation commodification human rights poverty and migration intersect with the heritage and memory of modern European famines Lastly the book considers what role emigrant and diasporic communities within and outside Europe play in the development of famine heritage and educational practices and whether famine heritage is accessible to them Famines and the Making of Heritage provides a crucial resource for museum and heritage scholars students and professionals working on or with difficult or dark heritages as well as those interested in the study of famines and legacies of troubled pasts

The Changing Museum Clive Gray, 2022-11-30 Using the example of New Walk Museum Leicester and its collections the complexity multi causality and reasons for change in museums are examined and explained The 170 years history of New Walk provides an original basis and innovative approach to be adopted towards explaining museum change The book makes use of original interview and archive material to examine how and why social economic political and professional developments affected the work that was undertaken in New Walk The time span covered is much longer than is normal for a book on museum history and is longer than for almost all the national museums in the UK with this allowing for a nuanced understanding of the causes and consequences of museum change over time The problems and possibilities of undertaking museum history research are also discussed Detailed examination of the ways in which a variety of societal developments fed into museum change is a key feature of the book The book is aimed at all those with an interest in understanding how and why change affects museum practice and will be of interest to museum professionals academics and students in museum studies history politics and sociology as well to the general museum visitor who would like to discover more about the institutions that they visit

Magic and Witchery in the Modern West Shai Feraro, Ethan Doyle White, 2019-06-26 This book marks twenty years since the publication of Professor Ronald Hutton s The Triumph of the Moon a major contribution to the historical study of Wicca Building on and celebrating Hutton s pioneering work the chapters in this volume explore a range of modern magical occult and Pagan groups active in Western nations Each contributor is a specialist in the study of modern Paganism and occultism although differ in their embrace of historical anthropological and psychological perspectives Chapters examine not only the history of Wicca the largest and best known form of modern Paganism but also modern Pagan environmentalist and anti nuclear activism the Pagan interpretation of fairy folklore and the contemporary Traditional Witchcraft phenomenon

Negotiating Digital Heritage Infrastructures Quoc-Tan

Tran,2025-09-18 Negotiating Digital Heritage Infrastructures examines the infrastructural qualities of museum work that influence the ability of cultural institutions to support participatory and socially inclusive missions Drawing on data gathered in Scotland Sweden and Germany and taking an infrastructure studies approach the book focuses on the socio technical negotiations underpinning the everyday practices of museum staff The book examines the work that is done behind the scenes including the everyday tasks of collecting archiving displaying museum objects and retrieving information Tran argues that while the technical components of infrastructure are necessary for memory making and knowledge production it is the social part of museum infrastructure that enables more open and decentralised modes of memory making The book shows how these negotiations affect the ability of museum infrastructures to accommodate and support growth and development expanding access and establishing modes of connection to external partners and services It illuminates the less visible practices of museums which nevertheless directly affect their more public outward facing activities Negotiating Digital Heritage Infrastructures will be of interest to academics and students who are engaged in the study of museums and heritage It will be particularly useful to those with an interest in public participation social inclusion heritage management the digitisation of collections data aggregation and human centred design approaches

The Routledge Handbook of the Northern Ireland Conflict and Peace Laura McAtackney,Máirtín Ó Catháin,2023-11-13 The Routledge Handbook of the Northern Ireland Conflict and Peace is the first multi authored volume to specifically address the many facets of the 30 year Northern Ireland conflict colloquially known as the Troubles and its subsequent peace process This volume is rooted in opening space to address controversial subjects answer key questions and move beyond reductive analysis that reproduces a simplistic two community theses The temporal span of individual chapters can reach back to the formation of the state of Northern Ireland with many starting in the late 1960s to include a range of individuals collectives organisations understandings and events at least up to the Good Friday Belfast Agreement in 1998 This volume has forefronted creative approaches in understanding conflict and allows for analysis and reflection on conflict and peace to continue through to the present day With an extensive introduction preface and 45 individual chapters this volume represents an ambitious expansive interdisciplinary engagement with the North of Ireland through society conflict and peace from a wide range of disciplinary perspectives theoretical frameworks and methodological approaches While allowing for rich historical explorations of high level politics rooted in state documents and archives this volume also allows for the intermingling of different sources that highlight the role of personal papers memory space materials and experience in understanding the complexities of both Northern Ireland as a people place and political entity

A Museum Studies Approach to Heritage Sheila Watson,Amy Jane Barnes,Katy Bunning,2018-10-08 Heritage s revival as a respected academic subject has in part resulted from an increased awareness and understanding of indigenous rights and non Western philosophies and practices and a growing respect for the intangible Heritage has thus far focused on management tourism and the traditionally heritage minded disciplines such as archaeology geography and social and cultural theory Widening the scope of international heritage studies A Museum Studies Approach to Heritage explores heritage through new areas of knowledge including emotion and affect the politics of dissent migration and intercultural and participatory dimensions of heritage Drawing on a range of disciplines and the best from established sources the book includes writing not typically recognised as heritage but which nevertheless makes a valuable contribution to the debate about what heritage is what it can do and how it works and for whom Including heritage perspectives from beyond the professional sphere the book serves as a reminder that heritage is not just an academic concern but a deeply felt and keenly valued public and private practice This blending of traditional topics and emerging trends established theory and concepts from other disciplines offers readers international views of the past and future of this growing field A Museum Studies Approach to Heritage offers a wider more current and more inclusive overview of issues and practices in heritage and its intersection with museums As such the book will be essential reading for postgraduate students of heritage and museum studies It will also be of great interest to academics practitioners and anyone else who is interested in how we conceptualise and use the past

What are Exhibitions for? An Anthropological Approach Inge Daniels, 2019-02-07 Why do people go to exhibitions and what do they hope to gain from the experience What would happen if people were encouraged to move freely through exhibition spaces take photographs and be playful In this book Inge Daniels explores what might happen if people and objects were freed from the regulations currently associated with going to an exhibition Traditional understandings of exhibitions place the viewers in a one way communication form where the exhibition and those behind its creation inform their audiences However motivations behind exhibition going are multiple and complex and frequently the intentions of curators do not match the expectations of their visitors Based on an in depth ethnographic examination of the processes involved in the making and reception of one particular exhibition experiment as well as a study that follows freed objects into their new homes this publication not only sheds light on what exhibitions are but also what they could become in the future Featuring over 175 colour illustrations and using practical examples this is an important contribution for students and scholars of anthropology museum studies photography design and architecture

Museum Provision and Professionalism Gaynor Kavanagh, 2005-06-20 Museums are public places where objects images and memories are kept and shared They exist in infinite variety and contradiction They can be places of great excitement and great boredom sharply insightful and hopelessly bland Museums are anything that the political climate and the imagination allows them to be No two museums are the same The papers which make up this volume give ample evidence of the variety of views that exist about museums They also demonstrate that museums and museum professionals are moving forward with energy and conviction This volume will be invaluable to students and museum professionals and will provoke them to consider museum provision and professionalism in all their forms

Museum Storage and Meaning Mirjam Brusius, Kavita Singh, 2017-09-07 Beyond their often beautiful exhibition halls many museums contain vast hidden spaces in which objects may be stored conserved or processed Museums can also include unseen archives study rooms and libraries which are inaccessible to the public This collection of essays focuses on this domain an area that has hitherto received little attention Divided into four sections the book critically examines the physical space of museum storage areas the fluctuating historical fortunes of exhibits the growing phenomenon of publicly visible storage and the politics of objects deemed worthy of collection but unsuitable for display In doing so it explores issues including the relationship between storage and canonization the politics of collecting the use of museum storage as a form of censorship the architectural character of storage space and the economic and epistemic value of museum objects Essay contributions come from a broad combination of museum directors curators archaeologists historians and other academics

Education for Smaller Museums Hazel Moffat, Association of Independent Museums, 1997

Museum Objects Sandra H. Dudley, 2012 Museum Objects provides a set of readings that together create a distinctive emphasis and perspective on the objects which lie at the heart of interpretive practice in museums material culture studies and everyday life This reader brings together classic and up to date texts on the nature and definition of the object itself the senses and embodied experience of objects No other volume brings together such perspectives in this way and no other volume includes such a focus on the museum context Museum Objects incorporates both theorised and more practical readings from a range of international academic and contextual perspectives The overall result is a definitive set of readings that offers a comprehensive understanding of objects and their place within the museum context

Museums, Objects, and Collections Susan Pearce, 2017-08-15 This book examines the historical context of museums their collections and the objects that form them Susan M Pearce probes the psychological and social reasons that people collect and identifies three modes of collecting collecting as souvenirs as fetishes and as systematic assemblages She considers how museum professionals set policies of collection management acquire study and exhibit objects and make meaning of the objects in their care Pearce also explores the ideological relationship between museums and their collections and the intellectual and social relationships of museums to the public

Keyguide to Information Sources in Museum Studies Peter Woodhead, Geoffrey Stansfield, 1994 This revised and updated edition provides an integrated guide to the documentation reference aids and key organizational sources of information about museums and museum studies worldwide Part One provides an overview of museums and the literature about them Part Two is an annotated bibliography and Part Three is an international directory of organizations A detailed index completes the work

Museums and the Challenge of Change Graham Black, 2020-12-29 Museums and the Challenge of Change explores the profound challenges facing museums and charts ways forward that are grounded in partnership with audiences and communities on site online and in wider society Facing new generations with growing needs and desires growing population diversity and a digital revolution the museum sector knows it must change but it has been slow to respond Drawing on the expertise and voices of practitioners from within and beyond the sector Black calls for a change of mind set and radical evolution transformation over time learning from the process rather than a big bang approach Internally a participative environment supports social interaction through active engagement with collections and content and Black includes an initial typology of participative exhibits both traditional and digital Externally the museum works in partnership with local communities and other agencies to make a real difference in response to societal challenges Black considers what this means for the management and structure of the museum emphasising that it is not possible to separate the development of a participative experience from the ways in which the museum is organised Museums and the Challenge of Change is highly practical and focused on initiatives that museums can implement swiftly and cheaply making a real impact on user engagement The book will thus be essential reading for museum practitioners and students of museum studies around the globe

Measuring Museum Impact and Performance John W. Jacobsen, 2016-03-15 Based on extensive research and decades of experience museum analyst and planner John W Jacobsen provides both the theoretical underpinnings and the operational pragmatics of measuring any museum's intentional impact and performance by using 1 025 indicators drawn from 51 expert sources Measuring Museum Impact and Performance Theory and Practice provides museum professionals internationally with a clear very open process that will improve their museum's value and performance by selecting indicators that monitor whether they are realizing their desired public private personal and institutional values The book is not prescriptive but liberating as the framework recognizes that each museum needs to decide on its own purposes and priorities The book is organized in two parts Part 1 Theory is scholarly and builds on the museum field's rich literature and Part 2 Practice provides step by step methods for any museum to set up its own dashboard of prioritized impact and performance indicators Substantive attachments include the list of the 51 source documents for the MIIP indicators definitions of terms and data fields a long list of precedented museum impacts measurement formulas and worksheet templates filled in for a sample museum and the MIIP 1 0 database available online Readers will get the following benefits A literature review of prior work on measuring museum value An analysis of eleven well established evaluation frameworks that synthesize into a revolutionary yet practical Museum Theory of Action A robust and searchable menu of 1 025 existing and aspirational indicators the MIIP 1 0 database that you can use to start your own selection An analysis of the MIIP database using the Theory of Action that reveals 14 areas of potential museum impacts and benefits A process to select and prioritize your museum's intentional purposes and desired impacts A process to determine measure and compare your museum's key performance indicators KPIs A process to set up and conduct peer museum comparisons Procedures and examples of how to capture and report data used in your selected indicators Principles for using indicator data to inform museum management decisions

Museums and Innovations Zvezdana Antos, 2017-01-06 This volume presents sixteen thoughtful essays which address innovative ways to present cultural heritage primarily in ethnographic and social history museums through recent permanent temporary and mobile exhibitions The essays included are taken from the different vantage points they prompt critical debate about new ways of thinking and working in museums of different sizes with regard for how we might work collaboratively towards a more equitable future Essential political issues related to power and the strong influences of the museum are addressed in each section especially with regards to the presentation of particular cultures and communities

Museum Languages Gaynor Kavanagh, 1991 The business of museums is to explain the past by showing and explaining material culture objects things to visitors Much effort has been devoted to improving the presentation of the objects themselves and even more to explaining their importance their context and their relevance This book is a critical examination of the techniques used today their success or failure and the connections between recent work in museums and contemporary studies of text meaning signs and symbols
