The Poetics of Anti-racism Meredith Lordan,2006 The sense of white entitlement is seen through discourses of what about us when issues of race and equity are raised in the classrooms of the dominant Even when race issues are grudgingly acknowledged there is the politics of moral distancing apparent in the dominant body playing the race card through evocations of merit excellence and meritocracy This book extends the discussion of anti racism to highlight linguistic racism and more specifically the centrality of language in the discourse and poetics of anti racism The contributors discuss how language is used and how especially in that usage race and racism are expressed in everyday practice The authors invite us to join the journey of real meaningful change through the poetics of words and action thereby giving voice to the possibilities of change Back cover Bibliographic Index ,1997 Migration, Narration, Identity Peter Leese,Carly

McLaughlin,Wladyslaw Witalisz,2012 This book presents articles resulting from joint research on the representations of migration conducted in connection with the Erasmus Intensive Programme entitled Migration and Narration taught to groups of international students over three consecutive summers from 2010 to 2012 The articles focus on various aspects of the migrant experience and try to answer questions about migrant identity and its representations in literature and the media The book closes with an original play by Carlos Morton the Chicano playwright working in the United States Yearbook
