The Postal Supervisor ,2003      Scholarship Reconsidered Ernest L. Boyer,1997-11-28 Throughout the country educators and their critics are renewing the old debate over the faculty s preoccupation with research and its effects on the quality of teaching On one campus after another there are stirrings that seem to presage a willingness to think afresh about the criteria that determine tenure and measure the success of faculty careers Scholarship Reconsidered speaks directly to these issues and should enrich a growing debate that may have important consequences for higher education Derek Bok Harvard University Scholarship Reconsidered is a thoughtful and welcome addition to a growing conversation about teaching and research in the nation s universities That conversation too readily evokes a dichotomous relation between two activities one entailing the production of new knowledge and the other the dissemination of the old This report from the Carnegie Foundation will I hope begin the long task of dispelling this polarity Donald Kennedy Stanford University Scholarship Reconsidered will provide a vital contribution to improved undergraduate instruction through its recognition of the necessary contribution of scholarship teaching The report accurately describes the dependence of collegiate instruction on scholarship in a manner which appreciate the strengths of American higher education and shows how to use these strengths to improve it Ernst Benjamin American Association of University Professors Scholarship Reconsidered is wise and sensible a welcome constellation of virtues It will be a greatly influential guide to people who care about teaching and learning in the United States today Catherine R Stimpson Rutgers In this groundbreaking study Ernest L Boyer offers a new paradigm that recognizes the full range of scholarly activity by college and university faculty He suggests that four general areas of endeavor be viewed as scholarship discovery integration of knowledge teaching and service Boyer questions the existence of a reward system that pushes faculty toward research and publication and away from teaching and proposes reconsidering the priorities of the professoriate
