Everyday Biohacking Alessandro Totaro, 2025-09-29 A body that sleeps better a sharper mind days filled with more energy you don't need expensive technology you need smart choices Everyday Biohacking Practical Strategies to Optimize Body and Mind in Daily Life is the narrative scientifically grounded handbook that turns ordinary habits into extraordinary results No hype no gimmicks here you'll find simple verifiable and sustainable protocols built on clear pillars sleep functional nutrition energetic routines to improve your quality of life without wasting time or money With an engaging yet authoritative style the book guides you to become your own personal scientist set up micro experiments observe your body's data without obsession adapt strategies and automate the habits that matter most You'll discover how to synchronize light darkness and temperature for true rest how to apply chrononutrition and intermittent fasting with discernment how to feed your brain not just your stomach how to breathe to calm stress spikes and reignite focus and how to build five minute micro routines that shift the momentum of your entire day Each chapter combines rigor with practicality real life mini cases actionable steps and low cost suggestions you can test immediately The goal is not perfection but daily consistency small changes big impact Who this book is for Professionals students and parents with limited time but a strong desire for well being Anyone seeking measurable results without trends or gadgets Readers looking for a clear inspiring and scientifically honest guide Final reminder longevity cannot be bought it must be cultivated One choice a day applied with method Nutrition During Pregnancy and Lactation National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Health and Medicine Division, Food and Nutrition Board, 2020-10-29 The National Academies of Sciences Engineering and Medicine last reviewed the state of the science on nutrition during pregnancy and lactation 30 years ago The resulting consensus study reports from the Institute of Medicine Nutrition During Pregnancy IOM 1990 and Nutrition During Lactation IOM 1991 summarized the scientific evidence and provided nutrient recommendations In the decades since the release of these two reports the body of evidence on the relationships between nutrition during pregnancy and lactation and maternal and infant health and chronic disease has continued to grow and evolve At the same time the demographics of the population have shifted giving rise to new considerations To explore the evidence that has emerged the National Academies conducted a 2 day workshop in January 2020 This publication summarizes the presentations and discussions from the workshop I Know I Should Exercise, But... Diana Hill, Katy Bowman, 2025-03-04 The most insightful guide to getting moving I've ever read Kelly McGonigal author of The Joy of Movement Break down the common everyday mental blocks to moving your body and turn your mind from an adversary into an ally in the quest to feel better in your body I know I should move my body more but I'm on my feet all day for work and I'm exhausted I'm addicted to my phone I'm great at starting movement programs just lousy at sticking with them My body jiggles and embarrasses me in public Movement is sooooo boring Sound familiar If not it probably means you have another perfectly good excuse of your own We all have our reasons for not getting the physical activity we know is good for us reasons which stubbornly defy the same old tired prescriptive advice about hours of weekly cardio or numbers of steps Adding insult to injury these same excuses contribute to you feeling bad or guilty when you fail to move as much as you know you should That's why Diana Hill and Katy Bowman have put together this simple guide to changing the way you think to change how much you move Diana is a modern psychologist expert in Acceptance and Commitment Therapy ACT and host of the Wise Effort podcast Her mission is to help her clients and readers grow the psychological flexibility needed to get moving in directions that matter to them Katy is a biomechanist author and trailblazing movement teacher who has spent a career helping people integrate more movement into their lives In I Know I Should Exercise But the two join forces to help you challenge your barriers to movement in a new way Katy translates her understanding of the obstacles that keep people sedentary including dozens of real world examples from readers and clients into 44 essential impediments to movement Diana responds to those common barriers while introducing you to acceptance and commitment therapy ACT behavioral psychology and self compassion evidence based approaches for cultivating flexibility and aligning actions with values Whether your internal barrier is born of fear malaise inertia embarrassment or difficulty managing competing priorities you will learn how to disempower it by applying effective science based tools for changing the way you think You'll learn to identify your resistance whether it's an unhelpful thought a misplaced motivation or a contextual barrier and respond wisely and effectively using tools and techniques that can be applied to other areas of your life as well including urge surfing motivational interviewing behavioral stretching strengthening your acceptance muscle This is a must have book for anyone struggling with the mental barriers to moving more and an essential resource for personal trainers fitness instructors and mental health professionals wanting to better connect with their clients Stretch your mind connect with what is truly important to you and stop talking yourself out of the movement you need

The Fading Divide Conrad Riker, Your World Is Crumbling Here's Why Are you watching society unravel while being told to shut up and comply Do you feel religion's collapse has left men like you without purpose or power Why are strength and tradition mocked as toxic while weakness is forced on you This book exposes the truth How the death of God created a vacuum filled by Marxist poison Why abortion transgenderism and euthanasia are pagan revivals destroying families The link between debt slavery and the end of biblical economics Where anti depressants and anti natalism trap men in despair How feminism turned marriage into male enslavement Why environmental hysteria is killing your future What virtues like fasting and fatherhood did for civilizations and why they're gone The real reason borders fail and populations collapse If you want to reclaim your identity your legacy and your world then buy this book today
