Cultural Governance Chris Bailey,Elena Theodoulou Charalambous,Geert Drion,2023-12-21 Cultural governance is currently regarded as a transversal element of public policy in Europe This book brings together academics and policy practitioners to provide new insights into the field exploring its contemporary dynamics dilemmas and challenges In light of the Cyprus Presidency in 2026 the authors reflect on the breadth and boundaries of cultural governance in a European perspective the role of international institutions such as UNESCO and the EU and the frameworks and dilemmas of cultural governance as a dedicated practice Particular attention is given to the relationship between culture and human creativity to cultural rights and to climate breakdown placing cultural governance at the heart of integrated public policy As a key contribution that enriches the field of cultural policy this book is essential reading for academics and offers guidance for concerted action for policymakers and legislators

Pivoting and Producing for Online TV Alexa Scarlata,2025-05-02 The introduction and diffusion of international subscription video on demand SVOD services in the 2010s represented the most significant disruption of established national broadcast and pay TV ecologies in their long history Using an in depth Australian case study this book narrates this profound period of proliferation It also considers how incumbent commercial networks pay TV providers and public service broadcasters developed into online TV providers albeit in assorted ways In so doing it conceives of the early impact of online TV 2015 2020 more broadly and acknowledges the role of both new and old TV players The industry wide shift towards online TV over this period also impacted existing television drama production cultures SVOD services provided a fruitful avenue for the distribution of existing archives and slowly began to support the production of new Australian content with an increasingly global focus However the formal arrival of online TV certainly did not usher in the boom in original local television drama many anticipated Pivoting and Producing for Online TV Australia s Transition advances the macro analysis of television production strategies This book will be useful to students and researchers interested in media film and cultural studies

Media Libraries in an Age of Unending Consumption Mike Van Esler,2023-10-24 As the home video market upended traditional film industry models media libraries emerged as important sources of ancillary revenue The inflection point for media library exploitation came in 2007 when Netflix launched its streaming service relying on extensive licensing of film and television libraries to grow its subscriber base In this book Mike Van Esler examines how media libraries and business models have evolved since the home video era with particular emphasis placed on the streaming age of the past fifteen years Van Esler argues that media libraries have grown beyond their usages from the pre home video era to become central to today s corporate media strategy By studying the ways in which media library exploitation has scaled up since the turn of the new millennium the author identifies insights into larger media industry trends Ultimately this book explores the intersection of corporate media independent distributors private equity tech companies and audiences Scholars of media studies business and sociology will find this book of particular
