Handbook of Sport Communication Paul Mark Pedersen, 2013 This text offers a survey of the discipline of sport communication. The authors explore communication within, through and for sport in all its theoretical, conceptual, cultural, behavioral, practical and managerial aspects, tracing the contours of this expansive transdisciplinary and international discipline and demonstrating that there are few aspects of sport that don't rely on effective communications. Including contributions from sport media and communications scholars and professionals from around the world, the book examines emerging media, social media, traditional print, broadcast and screen media, sociological themes in communication in sport and management issues at every level, from the interpersonal to communication within and between sport organisations and global institutions. Adapted from publisher's description Bargaining with Baseball William B. Gould IV, 2014-01-10 In 1995 William B. Gould IV, then chairman of the National Labor Relations Board, cast the deciding vote to obtain the injunction that ended the longest strike in baseball history. Sixteen years of peaceful relations between baseball labor and management have followed, as well as unprecedented prosperity in a relationship that had just endured 30 years of strikes and lockouts. This study, which clearly illustrates the practical impact of law on America's pastime, considers the 140-year sweep of labor-management relationships and conflict, exploring player-owner disputes, the development of free agency, the collective bargaining process and the racial integration of baseball, among other topics. It concludes with a discussion of the steroids era, the problem with maintaining Jackie Robinson's legacy in the 21st century and globalization. Encyclopedia of Sports
