Handbook of Research on the Future of Advertising and Brands in the New Entertainment Landscape Miguélez-Juan, Blanca, Bonales-Daimiel, Gema, 2023-01-09 In a globalized world full of noise brands are constantly launching messages through different channels For the last two decades brands marketers and creatives have faced the difficult task of reaching those individuals who do not want to watch or listen to what they are trying to tell them By producing fewer ads or making them louder or more striking more brands and communications professionals are not going to get those people to pay more attention to their messages they will only want to avoid advertising in all media The Handbook of Research on the Future of Advertising and Brands in the New Entertainment Landscape provides a theoretical reflective and empirical perspective on branded content and branded entertainment in relation to audience engagement It reviews different cases about branded content to address the dramatic change that brands and conventional advertising are facing short term Covering topics such as branded content measurement tools digital entertainment culture and government storytelling this major reference work is an excellent resource for marketers advertising agencies brand managers business leaders and managers communications professionals government officials non profit organizations students and educators of higher education academic libraries researchers and academicians

Playthings and Playtimes Hannah Field, Seth Giddings, Ben Highmore, 2025-10-29 In 2024 at the Barbican Art Gallery in London the Mexico based Belgian artist Francis Al s exhibited films of children from across the world playing with sticks hoops marbles and other toys The implication was clear play feels and looks like a universal language but takes on specific local forms Using this as a starting point Playthings and Playtimes explores the conflict and contradictions that circulate when play is simultaneously recognized as a species attribute part of human nature and as something crucially differentiated across time and space by design technology sentiment pedagogic values and so on The chapters in this volume demonstrate this interplay between the fixed and the mutable Topics range from the elaborate miniature worlds made by H G Wells and his sons to digitized fidget spinners from avant garde Uruguayan artist Joaquín Torres García s wooden blocks to the playground spaces of Kuwait and from the much maligned plastic toy to the new museum Young V A Together they bring play and the world of feelings into sustained contact with the history of material culture and design psychoanalysis childhood studies and other disciplines concerned with play culture In the process Playthings and Playtimes investigates key elements of a humanities approach to the modern world through the prism of play s affective materiality Handbook of Research on Consumer Behavioral Analytics in Metaverse and the Adoption of a Virtual World Keikhosrokiani, Pantea,2023-04-05

Although there are various studies on theories and analytical techniques to address consumer behavior change in the current world tracking consumer behavior change in the metaverse and the adoption of the metaverse remains a challenge that requires discussion The advent of the metaverse will have a profound influence on consumer behavior from how people make decisions and create brand connections to how they feel about their avatar embodiment and their purchases in the metaverse The Handbook of Research on Consumer Behavioral Analytics in Metaverse and the Adoption of a Virtual World investigates the social behavioral and psychological factors that influence metaverse adoption The focus then shifts to concepts theories and analytical approaches for detecting changes in consumer behavior in the metaverse Covering topics such as e commerce markets user experience and immersive technologies this major reference work is an excellent resource for business executives entrepreneurs data analysts marketers advertisers government officials social media professionals librarians students and educators of higher education researchers and academicians
