Oxford Handbook of Digital Ethics, 2023-11-17 The Oxford Handbook of Digital Ethics offers a lively authoritative up to date exploration of pressing ethical issues in our digital world. An international team of philosophers, some pioneers of digital ethics, others experts in related areas of philosophy, give critical appraisals of research in this fast growing field and locate it in the broader philosophical context. They push the discipline forward by exploring novel approaches and arguments that will shape the agenda on digital ethics for years to come. The Handbook gives readers tools to better understand problems which face us now in our digital lives and which are likely to emerge in the future.

Welcome to The New Normal: Life After The Chaos Vincent Jeseo, Juliann Allen, 2024-01-03 Change is the only constant that marketers deal with on a regular basis. However, the recent pandemic brought about change for every individual on the planet. It not only brought about changes to technology but it also reshaped the thinking of consumers and organizations through behavioral and cultural shifts in the market. This volume provides new insights and ideas in marketing research, theory and practice as we continue to adapt to the new normal world post pandemic. It provides success stories and regional case studies to offer marketers new ways in which to serve consumers and satisfy their needs. Featuring papers presented at the 2023 Academy of Marketing Science Annual Conference in New Orleans, LA, USA, this book discusses various areas of marketing, each serving as a pillar supporting the overall structure of contemporary marketing, built with shared knowledge and aimed toward the future with informed optimism. Founded in 1971, the Academy of Marketing Science is an international organization dedicated to promoting timely explorations of phenomena related to the science of marketing in theory, research and practice. Among its services to members and the community at large, the Academy offers conferences, congresses and symposia that attract delegates from around the world. Presentations from these events are published in this
