Smith,Rahul Telang,2017-08-25 How big data is transforming the creative industries and how those industries can use lessons from Netflix Amazon and Apple to fight back The authors explain gently yet firmly exactly how the internet threatens established ways and what can and cannot be done about it Their book should be required for anyone who wishes to believe that nothing much has changed The Wall Street Journal Packed with examples from the nimble footed who reacted quickly to adapt their businesses to laggards who lost empires Financial Times Traditional network television programming has always followed the same script executives approve a pilot order a trial number of episodes and broadcast them expecting viewers to watch a given show on their television sets at the same time every week But then came Netflix s House of Cards Netflix gauged the show s potential from data it had gathered about subscribers preferences ordered two seasons without seeing a pilot and uploaded the first thirteen episodes all at once for viewers to watch whenever they wanted on the devices of their choice In this book Michael Smith and Rahul Telang experts on entertainment analytics show how the success of House of Cards upended the film and TV industries and how companies like Amazon and Apple are changing the rules in other entertainment industries notably publishing and music We re living through a period of unprecedented technological disruption in the entertainment industries Just about everything is affected pricing production distribution piracy Smith and Telang discuss niche products and the long tail product differentiation price discrimination and incentives for users not to steal content To survive and succeed businesses have to adapt rapidly and creatively Smith and Telang explain how How can companies discover who their customers are what they want and how much they are willing to pay for it Data The entertainment industries must learn to play a little moneyball The bottom line follow the data The Netflix Effect Kevin McDonald,Daniel Smith-Rowsey,2016-08-11 Netflix is the definitive media company of the 21st century It was among the first to parlay new Internet technologies into a successful business model and in the process it changed how consumers access film and television. It is now one of the leading providers of digitally delivered media content and is continually expanding access across a host of platforms and mobile devices. Despite its transformative role however Netflix has drawn very little critical attention far less than competitors such as YouTube, Apple, Amazon, Comcast and HBO. This collection addresses this gap as the essays are designed to critically explore the breadth and diversity of Netflix's effect from a variety of different scholarly perspectives a necessary approach considering the hybrid nature of Netflix its inextricable links to new models of media production, distribution, viewer engagement and consumer behavior its relationship to existing media conglomerates and consumer electronics its capabilities as a web based service provider and data network and its reliance on a broader technological infrastructure.
