American Motorist, 1953 The Art of Classic Rock Paul Grushkin, Rob Roth, 2009

For forty years Rob Roth has collected rare examples of rock tour posters, advertising posters, rock memorabilia, original artwork and items of merchandise. His spectacular collection is so vast that it has never all been put on public display but when visitors to his spacious New York loft apartment visitors like Elton John and Alice Cooper caught a glimpse of some of the material Rob has collected over the years they were amazed and urged him to let rock fans see the dazzling array of artefacts from the 70s and 80s. For many the images lovingly catalogued in the pages of this book will evoke nostalgic memories of the blazing lights, drifting smoke and all pervading audio power of the rock concerts of their youth. It is also however a lavishly produced presentation of some of the most vivid and exciting artwork from the rock world featuring bands such as The Rolling Stones, Queen, Pink Floyd, The Who, Led Zeppelin and every other major rock act of the era. Each section of the book features a particular band, covering different tours and different albums, to show how design and graphic styles changed and to provide an overview of rock history from the period. An introduction to the section puts the images in context, outlining the stage the bands and acts had reached in their development and discussing the art and artists. Each piece that is portrayed carries a caption describing exactly what it is while items with a particular story to tell are accompanied by longer, more detailed texts.
