How to Find a Black Cat in a Coal Cellar Joe Buchdahl, 2013-07-01 How do we know if we can beat the bookmaker That s easy just look at our bank balance But how do we know if we ve not just been lucky More specifically how do we know that someone who says he can do it and who is selling his expertise can keep doing it again and again through talent skill and hard work This book examines the techniques available to answer that question to identify those qualities and to help the reader find value for money in an industry that appears to be largely built on trust and the influence of chance to uncover the truth about sports tipsters and ultimately how to find the best tipsters the Black Cats The Methodist Times ,1892

Investors Chronicle ,2006 An Introduction to the Philosophy of Induction and Probability Laurence Jonathan Cohen,1989 Two new philosophical problems surrounding the gradation of certainty began to emerge in the 17th century and are still very much alive today One is concerned with the evaluation of inductive reasoning whether in science jurisprudence or elsewhere the other with the interpretation of the mathematical calculus of change This book aimed at non specialists investigates both problems and the extent to which they are connected Cohen demonstrates the diversity of logical structures that are available for judgements of probability and explores the rationale for their appropriateness in different contexts of application Thus his study deals with the complexity of the underlying philosophical issues without simply cataloging alternative conceptions or espousing a particular favorite theory Nation ,1926 le Concise Intro Log W/Cd Patrick J.
