Nike Update Promo:

Sport, Advertising and Global Promotional Culture Steven J. Jackson, David L. Andrews, 2025-02-07 This book explores the intersection of contemporary sport advertising promotional culture and wider society. Arguing that advertising and promotional culture remain key driving forces in relation to social structures and systems that contribute to enduring patterns of economic and other forms of inequality this book examines how sport and related areas of social life continue to be transformed by these forces. Presenting in depth international case studies covering topics such as Nike's sign economies the sports gambling media complex sportswashing greenwashing radical politics in sport advertising sport and corporate nationalism and girls empowerment and transgender exclusion in sports this book sheds critical new light on some of the most important themes in the study of global consumer culture in the emerging era of surveillance capitalism. Overall this book examines sport advertising through the lens of the circuit of cultural commodification including production representation consumption and regulation in order to provide insights into the formation complexities and contradictions of social identities commodities and brands. This is a fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in the sociology culture and politics of sport or cultural studies media studies and the wider politics and social significance of late stage capitalism.

Ebook: Advertising and Promotion Belch, 2014-09-16 Ebook Advertising and Promotion Launch! Advertising and Promotion in Real Time Michael Solomon, 2009 Launch Advertising and Promotion is written for advertising and promotion courses taught to students in the business school and journalism mass communication students. This textbook is the first of its kind to teach advertising concepts by reverse engineering a real advertising campaign from beginning to end. In April 2007 SS K an innovative New York City communications agency launched the first ever branding campaign for msnbc.com with the tag A Fuller Spectrum of News Launch follows that campaign from initial agency pitch through roll out of print and media assets to post campaign analysis. Throughout it exposes readers to the theory and concepts of advertising and promotion and the personalities and decisions that drove this campaign. The book takes a rare look behind the curtain even letting you see some of the paths not chosen by the agency and client. Students get a realistic sense of how theory plays out in practice and get a flavor for the exciting field of advertising and promotion. And they consistently learn the perspectives of both the advertising agency where many journalism and communications students will work and the client where many marketing majors will work. This is a unique book with a unique perspective by a unique author team and you won't find this kind of insight in any other text on the market. We think you're going to love it. This textbook has been used in classes at Ball State University, Emerson College, Florida Institute of Technology, Grand Valley State University, Johnson County Community College, Manchester Business School, McLennan Community College, Michigan State University, North Hennepin Community College, Pierce College, Rochester Institute of Technology, Saint Louis University, Salem State College, South Dakota State University, Texas State University, Texas Tech University, University of New Hampshire, University of North Carolina, University of Notre Dame, University of South Florida, Virginia Tech, Western Kentucky University, Brandweek, 2010, Computerworld, 1999-11-29. For more than 40 years, Computerworld has been the leading source of technology news and information for IT influencers worldwide. Computerworld's award-winning Web site, Computerworld.com, twice monthly publication, focused conference series and custom research form the hub of the world's largest global IT media network.

Advertising, Promotion & Supplemental Aspects of Integrated Marketing Communications Terence A. Shimp, 2000 Alberta Authorized Resource 2003-2009 Advertising and Promotion George Edward Belch, Michael A. Belch, 2001

Advertising and Promotion Chris Hackley, Rungpaka Amy Hackley, 2021-01-27. Now in its fifth edition, this popular textbook continues to provide a comprehensive insight into the world of advertising and promotional communications. Unique in its approach, the authors situate the key concepts of marketing communications from the perspective of advertising agencies and provide insight into what a career within an ad agency might be like. Their critical approach, grounded in up-to-date research, allows the reader to develop an interdisciplinary understanding of marketing and advertising, including business, socio-cultural media studies and consumer culture theory perspectives. Along with striking full colour visual advertisements and illustrations, new examples and case studies, this fifth edition has been fully updated to include two brand new chapters on Social Media Advertising and Digital Advertising. Commentary on how the COVID 19 pandemic has and will impact advertising, the evolving role of advertising agencies in the post-digital era, emerging forms of advertising and promotion, including the role of influencers.
