Nyc Danielson Framework 2014 2015:

Race, Equity, and Education Pedro Noguera, Jill Pierce, Roey Ahram, 2015-11-14 This powerful and timely analysis takes stock of race and education sixty years after the historic Brown vs Board of Education decision. This volume examines education as one of the most visible markers for racial disparities in the US as well as one of its most visible frontiers for racial justice. Featuring original research, educators' insights and perspectives from communities of color, it documents the complex impact of social educational policy on social progress. Chapters on charter schools, curriculum, content, performance measurement and disproportionalities in special education referrals shed light on entrenched inequities that must be confronted. The book also makes it clear that leveling the playing field calls for not only better schools but also addressing pervasive social problems such as poverty and housing segregation. Included in the coverage: School Policy, Housing Policy, Deconcentrating Disadvantage to Address the Achievement Gap, Charter Schooling, Race Politics and an Appeal to History, The Data Quality Movement for the Asian American and Pacific Islander community, an unresolved civil rights issue, Critical Ethnic Studies in High School Classrooms, Academic Achievement via Social Action, Mexican American Educational Stagnation, The Role of Generational Status, Parental Narratives and Educator Messages. Pinpointing crucial issues and opportunities for solutions, Race, Equity, and Education has immediate salience for educators and researchers studying the intersection of race and education.

Supervision Jeffrey Glanz, Sally J. Zepeda, 2015-10-30 Supervision: New Perspectives for Theory and Practice, co-edited by two prominent scholars in the field. Jeffrey Glanz and Sally Zepeda draw attention to supervision as a function that is often misunderstood, underappreciated, and frequently controversial. Much has changed in the last two decades in the education world. These changes have inevitably influenced the theory and practice of supervision. This text includes some of the top scholars in the field in the USA to offer their insights to important topics and issues in supervision. To strike a balance, the editors also included award-winning practitioners who share their insights about supervision. We hope that this volume raises awareness to several critical issues that affect teachers, administrators, and policy makers. With the range of topics associated with supervision, we believe that the authors offer an informed and lively discussion of supervision in the present and future contexts of schools. Through our efforts, we believe that the multiple contexts in which supervision unfolds are examined alongside trends including high stakes testing, the uses of data, the work superintendents do to supervise principals, and the type of supervision that builds a just and caring school culture that is culturally relevant and respectful for teachers and leaders.
