

9. Decay

The darkness has never been an antagonist
It has never been an ally
But it creeps up on me
Sometimes playfully

When the lives I live in my mind
Feel better than I could ever know
When sleep acts as the only refuge
In the burning day

But sometimes
The darkness infiltrates my very perception
My momentary thoughts filtered
Through a lens
That provides me a view of every street
Only noticing urban decay
That provides me a view of every forest
Only feeling trapped within the trees
That provides me a view of the brightest sky
Only thinking about the vastness of space

The darkness within that lens
That bitter and beautiful lens
Finds me more frequently
Finds me when nothing can be said to be an issue
When life becomes so light
Yet so hard to bear

Pushing and pushing
The slow and decadent decay
Of light itself
Making the only option
The nothingness of the dark
