Adam's Gift Cindy Williams Adams, MED, 2024-06-12. In Adam's Gift, author Cindy Williams Adams shares the story of the death of her twenty-seven-year-old son, Adam, and her subsequent spiritual journey. "Hi, I'm Adam, and I'm dead. Well, not really. I'm still here." The first night in the hospital while Adam was on life support, around midnight, a nurse advised me to go home and get some rest. I looked at Adam's monitor. His heart rate was 180, a normal heart rate for an infant. At that point, his vital signs were nominal. I said, "I'd go home when Adam's heart rate reached 111." Greg and I sat in the dark, listening to the beep-beep of Adam's monitor. A few minutes later, Greg said, "Look at the monitor. Adam's heart rate was 111." My youngest sister, Rhonda, and I clipped some locks of Adam's dark brown hair as a keepsake. I was sitting at the head of his bed, examining our handiwork, when I heard Adam say jokingly, "Mom, what the fuck did you do to my hair?" In that pivotal moment, if I'd talked myself out of believing what I'd just experienced, I would have grieved Adam's death in an entirely different way. Trusting the communication from Adam was real, not only allowed me to accept the loss of Adam's physical presence, it allowed me to create an entirely new relationship with the part of Adam that is eternal. Adam's lungs, kidneys, pancreas, and liver saved the lives of two individuals and significantly improved the lives of three others. Adam's liver went to a young mother from Indiana where I was born. Adam's pancreas went to a woman with diabetes who'll never have to suffer another amputation. Adam's kidneys went to a woman from somewhere in California and to a man in Oakland who no longer plans their life around the need for dialysis. Adam's lungs went to a seventy-two-year-old man from Arizona. From January 2011 to February 2023, Adam led me on a twelve-year-long wild goose chase where I collected seemingly random puzzle pieces that when presented altogether finally make sense. From a past life
