In 2004 the United States waged one of the bloodiest battles of the Iraq war in the city of Fallujah west of Baghdad For many the city was a symbol of the resistance to the US war and occupation since the battle it has become a symbol of the worst of the US Iraq war Only one television station Al Jazeera stayed in Fallujah to report on the battle and the horrifying and heartbreaking images seen worldwide came from reporter Ahmed Mansour and cameraman Laith Mushtaq The images so outraged the world that the US military made Mansour's leaving Fallujah the first condition for a ceasefire Donald Rumsfeld called his reporting vicious and inaccurate Here for the first time in English is the renowned reporter's own view of what happened inside Fallujah amid controversy and confusion only to be ordered a second time to take a city that had become an inferno of hate and the lair of the archterrorist al Zarqawi Based on months spent with the battalions in Fallujah and hundreds of interviews at every level senior policymakers negotiators generals and soldiers and Marines on the front lines No True Glory is a testament to the bravery of the American soldier and a cautionary tale about the complex and often costly interconnected roles of policy politics and battle in the twenty first century
