Thomas Michael Joseph
Bateman, Roger Ivan Epp

New And Old Wars Organized Violence In A Global Era:

New and Old Wars Mary Kaldor, 1999 Since 1989 and the breakup of the Soviet Union both the threat of nuclear war and the threat of large scale interstate conventional war have receded Yet during the 1990s millions have died in wars in Africa Eastern Europe and Asia and millions more have become refugees from war torn regions In this pathbreaking book the author argues that in the context of globalization what we think of as war war between states in which the aim is to inflict maximum violence is becoming an anachronism In its place is a new type of organized violence which she calls new wars a mixture of war organized crime and massive violations of human rights The actors are both global and local public and private These wars are fought for particular political goals using tactics of terror and destabilization that are theoretically outlawed by the rules of modern warfare an informal criminalized economy is built into the functioning of these new wars The author asserts that political leaders and international institutions have been unable to deal with the spread of these wars mainly because they have not come to terms with their logic wars are treated either as old wars or as anarchy Her analysis offers a basis for a cosmopolitan political response to these wars in which the monopoly of legitimate organized violence is reconstructed on a transnational basis and international peacekeeping is reconceptualized as cosmopolitan law enforcement The author shows how this approach has profound implications for the reconstruction of civil society political institutions and economic and social relations

New and Old Wars Mary Kaldor, 2013-04-26 Mary Kaldor's New and Old Wars has fundamentally changed the way both scholars and policy makers understand contemporary war and conflict In the context of globalization this path breaking book has shown that what we think of as war that is to say war between states in which the aim is to inflict maximum violence is becoming an anachronism In its place is a new type of organized violence or new wars which could be described as a mixture of war organized crime and massive violations of human rights The actors are both global and local public and private The wars are fought for particularistic political goals using tactics of terror and destabilization that are theoretically outlawed by the rules of modern warfare Kaldor's analysis offers a basis for a cosmopolitan political response to these wars in which the monopoly of legitimate organized violence is reconstructed on a transnational basis and international peacekeeping is reconceptualized as cosmopolitan law enforcement This approach also has implications for the reconstruction of civil society political institutions and economic and social relations This third edition has been fully revised and updated Kaldor has added an afterword answering the critics of the New Wars argument and in a new chapter Kaldor shows how old war thinking in Afghanistan and Iraq greatly exacerbated what turned out to be in many ways archetypal new wars characterised by identity politics a criminalised war economy and civilians as the main victims Like its predecessors the third edition of New and Old Wars will be essential reading for students of international relations politics and conflict studies as well as to all those interested in the changing nature and prospect of warfare

how old war thinking in Iraq has greatly exacerbated what is the archetypal new war with insurgency chaos and the occupying forces lack of direction prescient of a different kind of conflict emerging in the 21st Century New and Old Wars Mary Kaldor,2001 Journal of Medieval Military History John France,Kelly DeVries,Clifford J. Rogers,2016-10-20 This volume focuses on the idea of proxy actors and irregular forces in medieval warfare with contributions on the military role of non noble combatants Muslim responses to the Crusades and foreign fights in North African states and Byzantium

Kolb,2017-12-04 This book examines the hard legal core if any of the Responsibility to Protect R2P concept with regard to the commitment to take collective action through the UN Security Council It addresses the question of whether public international law establishes a duty on the part of the individual Security Council members to collectively take the necessary action to prevent atrocities genocide crimes against humanity war crimes and ethnic cleansing To this end it offers an interpretation of provisions in multilateral conventions such as the undertaking to prevent genocide in Article 1 of the Genocide Convention and the undertaking to ensure respect for the Geneva Conventions in common Article 1 of the 1949 Geneva Conventions analyses the UN Charter framework for Security Council action and explores whether the recognition of the international responsibility to protect has prompted the emergence of a new norm for general international law Transcultural Wars from the Middle Ages to the 21st Century Hans-Henning Kortüm,2006 Proceedings of the conference Transcultural Wars from the Middle Ages to the 21st century held March 31 April 2 2004 in Regensburg Selling a 'Just' War M. Butler,2012-02-14 Butler sheds light on how American political leaders sell the decision to intervene with military force to the public and how a just war frame is employed in US foreign policy He provides three post Cold War examples of foreign policy crises the Persian Gulf War 1990 91 Kosovo 1999 and Afghanistan 2001 Neverending Wars Ann Hironaka,2005-01-30 Since 1945 the average length of civil wars has increased three fold What explains this startling fact Hironaka points to the crucial role of the international community in propping up new and weak states that resulted from the postwar decolonization movement These states are prone to conflicts and lack the resources to resolve them decisively

Violent Societies C. Steenkamp, 2014-10-15 This book investigates the relationships between political violence social violence and economic violence using examples from South Africa Northern Ireland Lebanon and Syria It examines the cultural impact of war and argues that a culture of violence can explain the high levels of violence which are frequently found in post war societies

The Polish Quarterly of International Affairs, 2002

Hyperconflict James Mittelman, 2010-01-08 This book addresses two questions that are crucial to the human condition in the twenty first century does globalization promote security or fuel insecurity And what are the implications for world order Coming to grips with these matters requires building a bridge between the geoeconomics and geopolitics of globalization one that extends to the geostrategic realm Yet few analysts have sought to span this gulf Filling the void Mittelman identifies systemic drivers of global security and insecurity and demonstrates how the intense interaction between them heightens insecurity at a world level The emergent confluence he labels hyperconflict a structure characterized by a reorganization of political violence a growing climate of fear and increasing instability at a world level Ultimately his assessment offers an early warning to enable prevention of a gathering storm of hyperconflict and the establishment of enduring peace methodological approaches and ideological assumptions This roadmap reinforces the notion that conflicts are complex processes that need to be understood and resolved based on their scope and content New Encyclopedia of Africa John Middleton,2008 Contains a collection of alphabetically arranged entries from Taboo and Sin to Zubayr on the history geography culture religion and ideologies wars and economy of the African nations and includes essays photographs thematic outline chronology and an appendix of individual ethnic groups Public Management of Society Ton van der Eyden,2003 CD ROM contains two appendices The relevance of history for contemporary French public management of society I XX centuries Bibliography public management of society Braving the New World Thomas Michael Joseph Bateman,Roger Ivan Epp,2004 Braving the New World features a selection of readings that provide a stimulating discussion of topics most often covered in the introductory political science course Three quarters of these readings are new or revised and updated making Braving the New World more current and relevant than ever Many of the readings offer a uniquely Canadian perspective on domestic and international issues enhancing the student s understanding of political concepts and events
