Never In Anger Portrait Of An Eskimo Family:

Never in Anger Jean L. Briggs, 1970 Describes emotional patterning of the Utkuhikhalingmiut a small group of Eskimos who live at the mouth of the Back River in the context of their life as seen as lived by the author Based on field work conducted between June 1963 and March 1965 Never in Anger Jean L. Briggs, 1972 Never in Anger: Portrait of an Eskimo Family. Jean L. Briggs Jean L. Briggs, 1970 The Postmodern Turn Steven Seidman, 1994-11-25 The Postmodern Turn gathers together in one volume some of the most important statements of the postmodern approach to human studies In addressing postmodern social theory and emphasising the social role of knowledge this book abandons the disciplinary boundaries separating the sciences and the humanities The first collection of its kind it provides the classic essays of authors such as Lyotard Haraway Foucault and Rorty Contributors include well known theorists in the fields of sociology anthropology women s and gay studies philosophy and history White Lies about the Inuit John Steckley, 2008-01-01 In this lively book designed specifically for introductory students Steckley unpacks three white lies the myth that there are fifty two words for snow that there are blond blue eyed Inuit descended from the Vikings and that the Inuit send off their elders to die on ice floes Hunt, Gather, Parent Michaela Douclev, 2022-03-08 An NPR Science Desk correspondent challenges the misleading child rearing practices commonly recommended to parents outlining alternatives grounded in international ancestral traditions that are being used effectively throughout the modern world In Hunt Gather Parent Douclev sets out with her three year old daughter in tow to learn and practice parenting strategies from families in three of the world s most venerable communities Maya families in Mexico Inuit families above the Arctic Circle and Hadzabe families in Tanzania She sees that these cultures don t have the same problems with children that Western parents do Most strikingly parents build a relationship with young children that is vastly different from the one many Western parents develop it s built on cooperation instead of control trust instead of fear and personalized needs instead of standardized development milestones The History of Emotions Jan Plamper, 2015 The history of emotions is one of the fastest growing fields in current historical debate and this is the first book length introduction to the field synthesizing the current research and offering direction for future study The History of Emotions is organized around the debate between social constructivist and universalist theories of emotion that has shaped most emotions research in a variety of disciplines for more than a hundred years social constructivists believe that emotions are largely learned and subject to historical change while universalists insist on the timelessness and pan culturalism of emotions In historicizing and problematizing this binary Jan Plamper opens emotions research beyond constructivism and universalism he also maps a vast terrain of thought about feelings in anthropology philosophy sociology linguistics art history political science the life sciences from nineteenth century experimental psychology to the latest affective neuroscience and history from ancient times to the present day Encyclopedia of Anthropology H. James Birx, 2006 Focuses on physical social and applied anthropology archaeology linguistics and symbolic communication Topics include hominid evolution primate behaviour genetics ancient civilizations cross cultural studies and social theories Socialization Thomas Rhys Williams,1983 Nursing Assessment & Health Promotion Strategies Through the Life Span Ruth Beckmann Murray,Judith Proctor Zentner,1989 Nunavut Generations Ann McElroy,2008 Review Change in arctic populations has not been a sudden phenomenon but rather a gradual process that has occurred over a number of generations In this longitudinal case study McElroy introduces readers to four Baffin Island communities in the eastern Canadian Arctic and focuses on the challenges and hardships they face in transition from hunting gathering lifestyles to wage employment and political participation in towns Through long term fieldwork historical material and life histories collected from elders Nunavut Generations richly illustrates political and ecological change alongside native stability and self determination BOOK JACKET Inuit Studies ,2001 Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,1994 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers An Introduction to Cultural and Social Anthropology Peter B. Hammond,1978 Nursing Concepts for Health Promotion Ruth Beckmann Murray,Judith Proctor Zentner,1985 Children in Action Jane Eva Baxter,2005 The First Americans William H. Hodge,1981 This book describes the nature of 13 native american groups as they were prior to white domination as they have become in the last half of the twentieth century Particular groups were selected because information concerning them was sufficient for the then and now time perspective of this book Initially an essential question is posed what are these people like The answer consists of a discussion about who where and when are indians The meaning of urban residence and the nature of indian ethnicity are then considered Following this new world prehistory is briefly examined to demonstrate that the essential outlines of Native American existence developed largely within the confines of the Western Hemisphere The roots of the the Native American present most certainly lie buried deep within an american past this development of modern aboriginal life is briefly outlined and the possibility of transoceanic contact influencing that development is discussed A brief comment is made on native language and finally the nature and implications of one central theoretical concept the culture area are presented The nature of the Native American life is considered by describing with the then and now format The dimensions of existence of 13 individual groups of people ranging from the Eskimo of the Arctic to the Papago and Eastern Cherokee peoples in the South Finally both the general and specific are pulled together Canadian Families 1900-2000 Benjamin Schlesinger,2000 This partially annotated bibliography of 943 articles relating to Canadian Families covers the period from 1900 2000 The concept is unique in its attempt to give the reader an overview of what has been published in English on the major issues relating to Canadian Families during a century Items in the bibliography are organized into 50 topical headings and include articles books reports surveys and other entries from published sources Also included is a selection of relevant websites An introductory essay highlights some of the major events relating to Canadian Families during the 1964 2000 period Historical entries let the reader examine what family life was like during the first 50 years of the 20th century An author index of 968 names allows for quick reference to specific bibliographic items The North Caucasus Ian Creery,James Pettifer,Khelen Krag,Nassim Jawad,Hugh Poulton,Lars Funch,Shahrbānū Tājbaḥsh,1993
