Publisher description Organization Change W. Warner Burke,2008 The Second Edition provides an overview of the theoretical and research foundation for our current understanding of organization change including the nature and types of change organizations experience The author reviews various models including the one developed by Burke and Litwin and uses cases to demonstrate how the models can be used to diagnose change issues in organizations Emphasizing planned revolutionary change over the gradual evolutionary change organizations typically experience Burke combines and integrates theory and research with application for insight into all aspects of organization change The Dynamics of Organizational Levels Nicholas S. Rashford,David Coghlan,1994 Gender, Race, and Ethnicity in the Workplace: Organizational practices and individual strategies for women and minorities Margaret Foegen Karsten,2006 Resource added for the Human Resources program 101161 Team Building William G. Dyer,1995 One of the major developments in the field of organization redesign has been the emergence of self directed work teams Team Building explains how teams are most successful when the team becomes part of the culture and structure or systems of the organization Team building is a human process that involves human feelings attitudes and actions This book is written for managers and human resource professionals who want to develop a more systematic program of team building in their organization or work unit William G Dyer has laid the groundwork for all subsequent books in the field of team building The first edition of this book was the pioneer text on team building this third edition brings the whole field of team building up to date The book discusses the major new trends including self directed work teams total quality initiatives and cross cultural teams and reviews the strengths and weaknesses of these new developments in team building Throughout the book Dr Dyer emphasizes the degree of commitment that managers and members of work teams must bring to the team building process For team building to succeed managers must adopt a true team philosophy take responsibility for team building work and become involved on a personal level Key executives also must become involved by ensuring that the organization s culture and especially its reward and reward systems support the goal of team building

Changing General Education Curriculum James L. Ratcliff, D. Kent Johnson, Jerry G. Gaff, 2004-04-07 This issue is about changing the general education curriculum in big ways through significant reforms and more frequently incremental ways to accomplish purposes better connect with students better and provide a more engaging and intellectually and emotionally compelling common collegiate experience The chapter authors present the results of a recent national survey on changes in general education four case studies of institutions that have undertaken change how they did it what the constraints were and most important what the results were and discussions on achieving curricular coherence and the nature of change and how to bring it about This is the 125th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Higher Education
