Between the two world wars on a hike in the English countryside Professor John Hill takes refuge from a violent storm in a cave There he nearly loses his life but he also makes an astonishing discovery an ancient manuscript housed in a cunningly crafted metal box Though a philologist by profession Hill cannot identify the language used in the manuscript and the time period in which it was made but he knows enough to make an educated guess that the book and its case are the fruits of a long lost but advanced civilization The translation of the manuscript and the search for its origins become a life long quest for Hill As he uncovers an epic that both enchants and inspires him he tracks down scholars from Oxford to Paris who can give him clues Along the way he meets several intriguing characters including a man keenly interested in obtaining artifacts from a long lost civilization that he believes was the creation of a superior race and will help him fulfill his ambition to rule other men Concluding that Hill must have found something that may help him in this quest but knowing not what it is and where it is hidden he has Hill his friends at Oxford and his family shadowed and threatened until finally he and Hill face off in a final climatic confrontation A story that features a giant pirate and slaver a human chameleon on a perilous metaphysical journey a mysterious hermit and creatures both deadly and beautiful this is a novel that explores the consequences of the predominant ideas of the 20th Century
