Archon Dragon

Sorcerer Warden Dragon

Out of all warden dragons, archon dragons seek to form the most close-knit communities out of their hoards, where hoard members and dragon share the strongest and most personal bonds—but this does not mean that archon dragons are above evil.

A young archon dragon will seek out hoardmates among those who have traditionally been rejected by society. Archon dragons specifically look for those who are powerless, destitute, and desperate for community, and give them power of their own. They are magical batteries, and those who join their hoard start to develop sorcerous powers just through proximity to the archon. The combination of finally having a community to call their own and access to a power they never had often makes the members of an archon dragon's hoard incredibly loyal to the hoard and the dragon who leads it. This is an incredibly powerful combination, and, in the claws of the wrong dragon, a deadly one.

A archon dragon hoard is often called a syndicate, although some just refer to it as a family. Because archon dragons deliberately target people ostracized by society, syndicates that grow powerful and large enough often take over the criminal underbellies of cities, with all members of the hoard having access to not just the powerful connections that the hoard affords, but literal sorcerous powers. A archon dragon's prince, the one poised to one day receive the archon dragon's essence and become an archon dragon themselves, is the one who has shown the most unwavering loyalty to the syndicate, and in return is given the most sorcerous power. However, the implied threat is obvious. Members of a syndicate hoard know all too well that everything they have acquired is because of the connections and the power that their dragon leader has granted them—and what one hand gives, the other can take away. Those who leave the syndicate or, worse, betray it, find that their sorcerous power was never truly theirs, as the dragon can take them away just as easily as they gave it.

It would be a mistake, however, to assume that all archon dragons create their hoards with evil intent in mind. Many syndicates, even the criminal ones, endeavor to give a home to those whom society has shunned for any reason, and they are known to be welcoming to any who seek to enter their ranks, regardless of creed, appearance, or past mistakes. There are even quite a few documented cases of archon dragons establishing themselves in orphanages and
