A Phenomenological Reading of Hosea 12:4-5 and 11:1-2 Andrew Oberg, 2023-12-06 A Phenomenological Reading of Hosea 12:4-5 and 11:1-2 Commune with Us explores two passages from the Hebrew Bible's prophetic book containing puzzling plurals in the original language pieces so enigmatic they are usually changed entirely in translation Andrew Oberg however considers them delightfully confusing and through in depth examinations builds a patchwork version for each These reconstructions are then brought to bear on four separate interpretative interactions per pairing based on alternative pre comprehensions that Oberg investigates using phenomenological methods to trace describe and wonder on the resulting responses Finally Oberg widens the focus of study and presents an approach to engaging with scripture of whatever faith and lineage that moulds the lessons taken into a technique that could be applied by any reader for a deeper interrogation of their literary heritage Oberg finds that the treasures we have received from tradition still yet always have volumes and volumes to speak

Drunk in the Spirit Merrill G. Greene, 2025-07-15 Sloshed Hammered Doing carpet time Sipping godka Videos showing people falling down shaking and spontaneously laughing all in church If one has not grown up in the Charismatic or Pentecostal tradition the concept of being drunk in the Spirit likely seems baffling Yet in recent decades the idea of spiritual intoxication has gained traction What should we think about such odd looking manifestations Does the Bible speak of anything like this How should we discern such things In this book readers will find a sustained analysis of passages from the Bible dealing with these very topics Readers may be shocked at how trances ecstatic episodes and altered states of consciousness are indeed found within the pages of sacred Scripture some of them hidden in one s own cherished stories The Textual History of the Bible from the Dead Sea Scrolls to the Biblical Manuscripts of the Vienna Papyrus Collection Ruth A. Clements,Russell Fuller,Armin Lange,Paul D. Mandel,2023-03-20 Biblical manuscripts from the Dead Sea and the Cairo Genizah have added immeasurably to our knowledge of the textual history of the Hebrew Bible The papers collected in this volume compare the evidence of the biblical DSS with manuscripts from the Vienna Papyrus Collection connected with the Cairo Genizah as well as late ancient evidence from diverse contexts The resulting picture is one of a dialectic between textual plurality and fixity the eventual dominance of the consonantal Masoretic Text over the textual plurality of the Second Temple period and the secondary diversification of that standardized text through scribal activity The Conceptual Worlds of the Fourth Gospel Charles B. Puskas,C. Michael Robbins,2021-01-08 Over under and through John s story of Jesus are unforgettable ideas and concepts profoundly simple and simply profound for the author s own audience and beyond These ideas did not originate in a vacuum They have recurred and been repeated before and after the writing of the Fourth Gospel For this reason we will examine the meaning of its words and themes in the context of its Jewish Greco Roman milieu Much of our intertextual understanding will be derived from alleged parallels that involve comparisons of similar vocabulary and phrases as well as parallel concepts and images from the Old Testament the Dead Sea Scrolls Philo and other relevant writings Such parallels will help to determine the meaning of a word or expression the translation of a particular language determining any direct influences upon the Fourth Gospel parallel traditions or the influence of its ideas as a creative and inspiring work of later antiquity
