investigates some of the greatest challenges facing society in the twenty first century including the struggle for rights and recognition by indigenous peoples women migrants and the young as well as the dampening effects some government responses to COVID 19 have had on artistic freedom and citizen participation The ill effects of digitisation on citizenship however are tempered by some more positive approaches from grass roots activities Perhaps the most acute challenge facing the world today is climate change an issue that can be both positive and negative depending on how we respond to it All the papers in this book share a people centred approach based around Michel Foucault s Care of the Self

Third Sector

Organizations in Sex Work and Prostitution Isabel Crowhurst,Susan Dewey,Chimaraoke Izugbara,2021-03-30 Third Sector Organizations in Sex Work and Prostitution is about sex work and prostitution third sector organizations TSOs non governmental and non profit organizations that provide support services to and advocate for the well being of people operating in the sex industries With a focus on three vast and extremely diverse regions Africa the Americas and Europe this book provides a unique vantage point that shows how interlinked these organizations histories and configurations are TSOs are fascinating research sites because they operate as zones of contestation which translate their understandings of sex work and prostitution into different support practices and advocacy initiatives This book reveals that these organizations are not external to normative power but participate in it and are subject to it conditioning how they can exist who they can reach out to where and what they can achieve Third Sector Organizations in Sex Work and Prostitution is a resource for scholars policymakers and activists involved in research on and work with third sector organizations in the fields of sex work and prostitution gender and sexuality and human rights among others

Transnational Humans and Transnationalisms in the Humanities Max Paul Friedman,Stefan Rinke,Núria Vilanova,2025-12-02 This unique anthology from scholars across the humanities and allied fields presents a vivid picture of the state of scholarship on transnationalism today Are we living in a transnational world The 900 percent rise in the use of transnationalism in publications since 1995 testifies to a defining phenomenon International migration has increased two thirds since 1980 and the global circulation of capital media and culture has intensified provoking nationalist political backlash worldwide This collection of studies on exile social science indigeneity gender activism music and dance gangs sex work narcofiction and cinema examines how transnational forces influence racial difference national identity immigrant exclusion state power and cultural expression in the Americas It explores how the physical and symbolic movement of humans and their artifacts shapes ideas and challenges accepted notions of national and conceptual boundaries among them By addressing the impact of digital technologies on spatialization by challenging emerging conventions on transnationalism and by fostering interdisciplinary exchange the book enriches our understanding of transnational lives and provides tools for exploring the transnational turn
