loan repayment plan intended to enable high debt graduates to accept low income public service jobs by reducing their loan payments and eventually forgiving part of their debts But this Congressional initiative only helps those with catastrophically low incomes It has failed to attract many users because as implemented through regulations of the U S Department of Education it requires payment over too long a period 25 years before forgiveness Many students go to graduate and professional schools in pursuit of careers in public service But they often must borrow 100 000 or more to finance their education Their loan repayment obligations become so high that they can no longer afford to follow their ideals and they abandon their plans to have public service careers and seek employment with corporations or firms offering high salaries The income contingent repayment plan should have appealed to would be public interest lawyers who are among the graduates with the highest debt to income ratios but the plan has failed them and Schrag explores why and how the plan should be reformed either by Congress or by the federal administration Banking ,1945 CareerXroads Gerry Crispin,Mark Mehler,1999 An exclusive directory to connect talent and opportunity on the Internet CareerXroads is a tool to help professionals develop new opportunities and network successfully in the increasingly competitive global market Job seekers and recruiters alike will get an edge with this must have guide that is updated by the authors each month via e mail An added feature in this their fifth edition is a kit bag of articles that includes tips and tools for anyone looking for their next job or wanting to hire their next employee The guide includes detailed reviews of 500 top rated WWW sites for finding jobs and resumes that are cross indexed by professional specialty geography industry and more guidelines for job seekers to network online prepare resumes that pass optical scanning standards and find short cuts to access thousands of employers guidelines for recruiters and hiring managers to find and attract more qualified candidates faster at less cost than ever before
