Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture. It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers. The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture. It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture. Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature, sociology, media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries.

Thriller Market Data Ocean Ecosoft, AI, 2025-02-19 Thriller Market Data offers a deep dive into the thriller genre providing a data driven analysis of publishing industry statistics to reveal the reader preferences and market trends that drive success. It explores how understanding reader preferences beyond demographics and identifying actionable market trends are vital for strategic decision making. The book uniquely places current market dynamics within a historical context of genre fiction and consumer behavior examining the evolution of thriller subgenres alongside shifts in reader habits including digital consumption. The book dismantles the myth of relying solely on intuition advocating for data informed decisions from manuscript acquisition to marketing. For example A/B testing methodologies are used to pinpoint causal relationships between marketing strategies and sales performance. Beginning with core concepts of market analysis the book progresses by exploring key performance indicators, analyzing successful subgenres and discussing the impact of digital platforms. It culminates with practical strategies for authors, publishers and agents.

Child as Citizen Giuliana Fenech, 2025-08-15 Contributions by Daniela Brockdorff, Nina Christensen, Jill Coste, Katrin Dautel, Justyna Deszcz, Tryhubczak, Giuliana Fenech, Naomi Hamer, Irena Barbara Kalla, Anne Klomberg, Sonali Kulkarni, Elizabeth Leach, Leung Ann, Marie Murnaghan, Emily Murphy, Emilie Owens, Nicola Parker, Patrycja Poniatowska, Meg Rosoff, and Farriba Schulz. Child as Citizen: Agency and Activism in Children's Literature and Culture addresses children's and young adult agency and activism across literature and culture demonstrating how these forces influence child citizenship. Contributors to this volume highlight the agentic voices and activist practices that are growing across all spheres of young people's lives as well as the challenges to active citizenship that children growing up in unjust sociopolitical contexts face. The volume is interdisciplinary and draws on the sociology of childhood, children's literature studies, youth culture studies, media technology and cultural studies, and Anthropocene, ecofeminist, and disability studies. Agency occurs in and around literature and storytelling and this collection establishes how it is always influenced by identity as well as geopolitics how it is both subjective and collective how it is cultural and embodied and how like citizenship it is not a static status but rather an ongoing negotiation In this collection contributors invite readers to consider agency as a system of relations between children themselves between children and adults children and institutions and children and nation states as well as between children and the nonhuman This book reviews the interconnectedness between these relationships and attempts to untangle some of the complications that emerge

How to end a love story Yulin Kuang, 2024

Helen Zhang hasn't seen Grant Shepard once in the thirteen years since the tragic accident that bound their lives together forever. Now a bestselling author, Helen pours everything into her career. She's even scored a coveted spot in the writers' room of the TV adaptation of her popular young adult novels, and if she can hide her imposter syndrome and overcome her writer's block, surely the rest of her life will fall into place too. LA is the fresh start she needs. After all, no one knows her there. Except Grant has done everything in his power to move on from the past, including building a life across the country. And while the panic attacks have never quite gone away, he's well liked around town as a screenwriter. He knows he shouldn't have taken the job on Helen's show, but it will open doors to developing his own projects that he just can't pass up. Grant is exactly as Helen remembers him: charming, funny, popular, and lovable in ways that she's never been. And Helen is exactly as Grant remembers: too brilliant, beautiful, closed off. But working together is messy and electrifying, and Helen's parents, who have never forgiven Grant, have no idea he's in the picture at all. When secrets come to light, they must reckon with the fact that theirs was never meant to be any kind of love story. And yet the key to making peace with their past and themselves might just lie in holding on to each other in the present. TikTok Literary Communities Cayla Caruso, 2025. Beginning on Tumblr in 2014, the Dark Academia internet aesthetic and later literary genre took hold of audiences and entranced them into its dark, moody, mysterious world. As social media evolved to the current day, Dark Academia literature has found a foothold on one of the most popular social media platforms: TikTok. Current research and literature about this community does not exist, prompting the question about the characteristics of the Dark Academia literature community on TikTok. This thesis uses an Ethnographic Content Analysis (ECA) approach to understand the Dark Academia community, its video characteristics, its members, and its widely accepted canon of literature.
