New Media in New Europe-Asia Jeremy Morris, Natalya Rulyova, Vlad Strukov, 2016-04-14 This volume offers an in depth investigation of the role of new media in the political social and cultural life in the region of Europe Asia. By focusing on new media which is understood primarily as internet enabled networked social practice the book puts forward a political and cultural redefinition of the region which is determined by the recognition of the diversity of new media uses in the countries included in the study. This book focuses on the period prior to the advent of world internet revolutions and it registers the region at its pivotal moment at the time of its entry into the post broadcast era. Does the Internet aid democratisation or is it conditioned by socio political norms? Has the Internet changed politics or has it had to fit existing political structures? Has the use of digital technologies revolutionized election campaigns? How is hyperlinked society different from society prior to the advent of the web? How do ordinary people actually use the Internet? These and other pressing questions crucial to understanding the post socialist world are investigated in the current volume. This book was published as a special issue of Europe Asia Studies.

The New Urban Gothic Holly-Gale Millette, Ruth Heholt, 2020-10-17 This collection explores global dystopic grotesque and retold narratives of degeneration, ecological and economic ruin, dystopia and inequality in contemporary fictions set in the urban space. Divided into three sections: Identities and Histories, Ruin and Residue, and Global Gothic. The New Urban Gothic explores our anxieties and preoccupation with social inequalities, precarity and the peripheral that are found in so many new fictions across various media. Focusing on non canonical Gothic global cities, this distinctive collection discusses urban centres in England's Black Country, Moscow, Detroit, Seoul, Hong Kong, Bangkok, Singapore, Delhi, Srinagar, Shanghai and Barcelona as well as cities of the imaginary, the digital and the animated. This book will appeal to anyone interested in the intersections of time, place, space and media in contemporary Gothic Studies. The New Urban Gothic casts reflections and shadows on the age of the Anthropocene.

Duelling, the Russian Cultural Imagination, and Masculinity in Crisis Amanda DiGioia, 2020-10-12 This book, written from a feminist perspective, uses the focus of duelling to discuss the nature of masculinity in Russia. It traces the development of duelling and masculinity historically from the time of Peter the Great onwards, considers how duelling and masculinity have been represented in both literature and film, and assesses the high emphasis given in Soviet times to gender equality, arguing that this was a failed experiment that ran counter to Russian tradition. It examines how duelling continues to be a feature of life in contemporary Russia and relates the situation in Russia to wider scholarship on the nature of masculinity more generally. Overall, the book contends that Russia's valuing of a strong militaristic form of masculinity is a major problem.
