The Essential Graham Robson, 2004 Essential MG tells the full story of this well-loved sports car from its early days covering developments in style increases in power and its history in racing and speed trials. The first MG cars were produced in Oxford, England, in 1924. The car was instantly appealing with a cheekiness of spirit that would characterize the marque all of its life, winning the hearts of millions around the globe, not least in the United States. The price was as attractive as the styling and the performance. It was cheap and it was fun, quintessential MG traits.

Providing a nostalgic trip down memory lane for any post-war car enthusiast, the text is generously illustrated with original line drawings and black and white plus colour period photos. All models are covered including sports derivatives, limited editions, vans, estates and coupes with a section on motorsport achievements and TV and movie appearances. Contemporary factory advertising slogans are featured throughout. Complementing the historical content, technical specifications, ongoing production changes and build figures are also included for completeness. Trevor Alder has been driving classic cars for many years and has written and compiled several publications researched from his massive self-indexed magazine archive including several other titles in the Veloce's highly successful A Pictorial History series. A bookshelf must for anyone interested in a slice of Britain's sporting motoring heritage.
