Martin, Lut Missinne, Beatrix van Dam, 2017-01-06 This volume focuses on how travel writing contributed to cultural and intellectual exchange in and between the Dutch and German speaking regions from the 1790s to the twentieth century interwar period Drawing on a hitherto largely overlooked body of travelers whose work ranges across what is now Germany and Austria the Netherlands and Dutch speaking Belgium the Dutch East Indies and Suriname the contributors highlight the interrelations between the regional and the global and the role alterity plays in both spheres They therefore offer a transnational and transcultural perspective on the ways in which the foreign was mediated to audiences back home By combining a narrative perspective on travel writing with a socio historically contextualized approach essays emphasize the importance of textuality in travel literature as well as the self positioning of such accounts in their individual historical and political environments The first sustained analysis to focus specifically on these neighboring cultural and linguistic areas this collection demonstrates how topographies of knowledge were forged across these regions by an astonishingly diverse range of travelling individuals from professional scholars and writers to art dealers soldiers female explorers and scientific collectors The contributors address cultural aesthetic political and gendered aspects of travel writing drawing productively on other disciplines and areas of scholarly research that encompass German Studies Low Countries Studies comparative literature aesthetics the history of science literary geography and the history of publishing Tekeningen, aquarellen en prenten, 19de en 20ste eeuw Koninklijk Museum voor Schone Kunsten (Belgium), Lydia M. Broeckx, 1959 Over koningen en bureaucraten R. C. van Caenegem, 1977 Het idee van de functionele stad Cornelis van Eesteren, 1997 To many people the idea of the functional city lost its former appeal after the seventies There were good reasons for that but the functional city is not something that will go away To contemporary eyes historic cities possess an enchanting and innocent beauty but once they were fully functioning centres of craft and trade Habitation work and traffic are still the dominant factors in the structure of a city The modern city is marked however by an unprecedented enlargement of scale The idea of the functional city stems from the problems associated with this phenomenon C van Eesteren was no utopian nor was he an architectural messiah His lecture on the idea of the functional city in January 1928 was a down to earth appraisal of new design tasks that had so far been completely ignored Now that the idea of the functional city is on the agenda again it is interesting to examine why the pioneers of functionalism broke with the historicizing practices of their predecessors Perhaps the choice they made was too radical This book reconstructs the historic moment of that choice Bookjacket Geschiedenis van de luit en de gitaar Robert Janssens, 1980
