The Christological Metaphors of Wine, Water, and Bread in the Gospel of John in Relation to Their Sapiential Background Michał Filip Powęska,2024-12-09 When focusing on the sapiential traits in text of the Fourth Gospel it should be noted that in its images of wine water and bread connected by the common theme of eating and drinking one can see Jesus the Giver who like the Old Testament personified wisdom bestows his gifts on man Although single references to the Old Testament sapiential texts have been suggested for the Johannine images of wine water bread light and the vine no detailed study of these images as well as their juxtapositions even in the aspect of eating and drinking has been published so far The selected topic seems to be important for showing a comprehensive approach to the Johannine banquet motif in its sapiential aspect broken down into particular Johannine images which are the events related to wine water and bread It is ultimately significant to present Jesus full identity through these three metaphors referring to the personified and preexisting wisdom as described in the Old Testament sapiential literature The Industrial Revolution-Lost in Antiquity-Found in the Renaissance Cort MacLean Johns, Ph.D.-HSG,2019-10-23 The Industrial Revolution Lost in Antiquity Found in the Renaissance is a revisionist well researched work being a definitive account of the historical roots of the Industrial Revolution that began with Ctesibius in 270 BC at the onset of the Hellenistic Period and continued on with the invention of the steam engine by James Watt in 1776 and Oliver Evans in the early 19th century encompassing almost 2000 years of history
