Planning for Outdoor Learning Helen Bilton, 2025-11-28 When the environment is right children flourish Just as ready made meals don t create great chefs ready made environments don t nurture independent thinkers Planning is key to creating rich outdoor learning experiences where children educators and the environment can work together This book supports practitioners working with children aged two to six including Reception and Year 1 develop a flexible observation led approach to planning that places children at the heart of the process Rather than a rigid one size fits all process planning should be a dynamic responsive practice that evolves with the needs of the children and setting Through practical examples this book demonstrates how well planned outdoor spaces support children s independence and problem solving skills. Chapters include The planning cycle making planning accessible and achievable Guiding principles for effective outdoor learning Creating intentional environments that support children s curiosity and development Observation assessment and documentation made manageable Case studies from real settings and their outdoor planning journeys Features Hundreds of full colour photographs Reflective tasks and activities for staff development Practical tools for creating adaptable child centred plans This book empowers early years practitioners to design outdoor learning experiences that truly meet children s needs By focusing on the why and how of planning it ensures that day to day practice is guided by meaningful aims and objectives allowing educators to spend less time on paperwork and more time engaging with the children

EBOOK:

Starting from the Child: Teaching and Learning in the Foundation Stage Julie Fisher, 2013-03-16 Starting from the Child supports early years practitioners to be advocates for young children and their learning needs In the fourth edition of this highly influential and inspirational book Julie Fisher outlines the important theories and research which should underpin best early years practice. She takes a robust and principled stand against downward pressure to formalise young children's learning too soon and offers practical and meaningful ways to develop high quality learning and teaching in the early years. Starting from the Child challenges all early years practitioners to consider How to build on children's innate desire to learn and their competence and autonomy as effective early learners. How to plan environments indoors and out that make learning irresistible. How to plan for high quality child initiated learning to take place seamlessly alongside learning that is adult initiated. The role of the adult in supporting and extending young children's learning. How daily observation of children informs and underpins planning for their individual and unique learning needs. Revised and updated throughout this fourth edition includes the latest research on early brain development and reference to recent government initiatives including the revised Early Years Foundation Stage. Starting from the Child is essential reading not only for early years practitioners but for all those who manage and make decisions about early learning. Julie draws on her extensive work with practitioners to present the everyday realities and complexities of their practice and to sound welcome notes of caution about the ways in which policy frameworks are used. The book also reflects deeply held convictions about the moral and ethical responsibilities we have to teach young children in ways that respect their extraordinary enthusiasm for learning. Professor Elizabeth Wood University of Sheffield UK. The title says it all. Julie takes the reader by the hand and says Look and listen give these children your full and respectful attention and they will teach you how to be with them. All the practical ideas in the book support practitioners in using their skills and knowledge to recognise early childhood as valuable in its own right to be relished and enjoyed not to be rushed through or seen merely as preparation for the next stage. Helen Moylett Early Years Consultant and writer Julie Fisher's work has been a staple of Early Childhood Education since the first edition of Starting from the Child in 1996. Her fourth edition does not disappoint and is a welcome development of her thinking. This is a book for students, teachers and other early years workers seeking to find their way through the conflicting needs of a rapidly changing area of work. Nick Swarbrick Programme Lead for the Undergraduate Modular Programme in the School of Education Oxford Brookes University UK.

Starting from the Child? Teaching and Learning in the Foundation Stage, 5e Julie Fisher, 2024-04-04. What a tour de force Julie's authoritative research and practice based coherent wise arguments for child centred practice should be required reading for all primary head teachers. She has been writing editions of this book for over 27 years and she's still right. Helen Moylett Early Years Consultant and Writer Vice President of Early Education UK. Starting From the Child has evolved and developed in the ever changing landscape of Early Years Education since it was first published almost 30 years ago and this version is perhaps more important now than ever before. A must read for every Head Curriculum lead Adviser Inspector and Early Years Educator. Ruth Swailes Independent Education Consultant and Curriculum Developer UK. Starting from the Child is now in its fifth edition and has undergone a substantial rewrite to address significant shifts in teaching in the early years of education. The book's enduring appeal is its principled yet pragmatic approach to being an early childhood educator and in this new edition the author does not shy away from addressing current sector concerns whilst holding firm to established early years principles and values The book explores the challenges faced by early childhood educators in a climate of adult insisted programmes and questions whether it is possible to continue to put the child at the centre of all that we do With her trademark passion Julie Fisher argues that it is not only possible but essential and offers strategies to do so in positive enlightened and inspiring ways Whilst maintaining the many strengths of previous editions every chapter is fully up to date with current research and thinking about early years practice and pedagogy The fifth edition includes a new chapter addressing what it means to Start from the Child a new chapter on the design of an early years curriculum a revised chapter emphasising distinctive opportunities arising from learning outdoors a revised chapter on planning for children's needs rather than curriculum delivery Starting from the Child will inspire provoke and renew all those who are committed to working in the field of early childhood education Julie Fisher is an independent Early Years Adviser author and trainer She is also Visiting Professor of Early Childhood Education at Oxford Brookes University UK She has been a headteacher of two schools a university lecturer and a local authority Lead Adviser for Early Years
