Redfern and Hunter on International Arbitration Nigel Blackaby KC, Constantine Partasides KC, Alan Redfern, 2023-01-18

Redfern and Hunter on International Arbitration is an established treatise on the law and practice of international arbitration the pre eminent method for the peaceful resolution of disputes in international trade investment and commerce This book serves as an introduction following the chronology of an arbitration from the drafting of the arbitration agreement right through to the enforcement of the arbitral award Written by an author team with extensive experience as counsel and arbitrators the book has been read and cited by international lawyers arbitrators and judges and has become a key learning text for teachers students and potential arbitrators in colleges and universities across the world The seventh edition has been significantly revised to incorporate the latest significant developments in the field including changes in investor state dispute resolution leading court decisions on arbitration matters in a wider number of jurisdictions changes in the soft law of leading international arbitral institutions and of the International Bar Association and the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on the practice of international arbitration This shorter paperback edition does not include the appendices

Conflict of Laws and Arbitral Discretion Benjamin Hayward, 2016 , International Arbitration and Global Governance Walter Mattli (politicalologist), Thomas Dietz, 2014 International Arbitration and Global Governance is the first book offering a wide ranging and up to date analytical overview of arguments in a vigorous nascent interdisciplinary debate about international arbitration courts and their exercise of private governance power

Procedure and Evidence in International Arbitration Jeffrey Waincymer, 2012-05-23 Central to the book's purpose is the procedural challenge facing arbitrators at each and every stage of the arbitral process when fairness arguments conflict with efficiency concerns and trade offs must be determined Some key themes include how can a tribunal be fair and in particular be neutral if parties are so diverse How can arbitration be made efficient and cost effective without undue inroads into fairness and accuracy How does a tribunal do what is best if the parties are choosing a suboptimal process When can or must an arbitrator ignore procedural choices made by the parties The author thoroughly evaluates competing arguments and adds his own practical tips expertly synthesizing and engaging with the conference literature and differing authors views He identifies criteria that offer a harmonized approach to each stage of the arbitral process with particular attention to such aspects of international arbitration as appropriate trade offs between flexibility and certainty the rights duties and powers of arbitrators appointment and challenge of arbitrators responses to guerilla tactics drafting of arbitration agreements including specialty clauses drafting of required commencement notices and response documents set off fast track arbitration and other efficiency options strategic use of preliminary conferences and timetabling online arbitration multi party multi contract class arbitration amicus and third party funders pre arbitral referees and interim relief witness evidence both factual and expert documentary evidence production obligations and challenges to production identifying applicable law and remedies and costs

Redfern and Hunter on International Arbitration Nigel Blackaby, Constantine Partasides, Alan Redfern, Martin Hunter, 2009-10-15 Reviewing the legal context within which international commercial arbitration operates this text has been updated to reflect recent developments in international law      Finances in International Arbitration Sherlin Tung, Fabricio Fortese, Crina Baltag, 2019-11-26 Finances in International Arbitration Liber Amicorum Patricia Shaughnessy Edited by Sherlin Tung Fabricio Fortese costs of court proceedings versus arbitration proceedings fee arrangements with legal counsel costs of commercial versus investment arbitration how to deal with in house costs in international arbitration impact of tribunal secretaries in international arbitration cost sanctions in international arbitration damages in international arbitration The analysis and views offered by leading scholars and practitioners on current day issues arising out of costs of arbitration will offer readers a unique perspective on various aspects of the finances involved in arbitration This book will provide insightful thoughts and practical guidance for academics and practitioners in the field of international arbitration

The Powers and Duties of an Arbitrator Patricia Shaughnessy, Sherlin Tung, 2017-04-15 The scope of the arbitrator's powers in arbitration proceedings has been widely discussed in recent years but remains understudied Among prominent international arbitrators none have focused on this issue more than Dr Pierre A Karrer Dr Karrer is celebrated here on the occasion of his seventy fifth birthday by more than thirty leading arbitration practitioners and academics worldwide who have been part of and have been influenced by his extensive professional career Following Dr Karrer's primary interests notably his advocacy of a strong arbitrator role in proceedings as evidenced in his lectures presentations and publications as well as in his own arbitrations the contributions in this book consider such questions as the following What are the sources of an arbitrator's power What are the limits of an arbitrator's power Should arbitrators have a role in encouraging settlement May arbitrators regulate and impose sanctions against counsel How managerial should arbitrators be What are the duties and liabilities of arbitrators What is the nature of the arbitrator's relationship to arbitral institutions Are emergency arbitrators actually arbitrators Should arbitrators raise issues of arbitrability and public policy ex officio To what extent may arbitrators delegate tasks and use tribunal secretaries With its in depth perspectives on the arbitrator's role powers and duties in an arbitration proceeding and its extensive analysis of some of the most timely and controversial issues in arbitration today this book offers an abundance of thought provoking yet also practical commentary and guidance for practitioners and academics in the field of international arbitration and international commercial law      Online Arbitration Faye Fangfei Wang, 2017-08-14 Innovative initiatives for online arbitration are needed to aid in resolving cross border commercial and consumer disputes in the EU UK US and China This book provides a comparative study of online dispute resolution ODR systems and a model of best practices taking into consideration the features and characteristics of various practical experiences examples of ODR services and technological development for ODR systems and platforms The book begins with a theoretical approach looking into the challenges in the use of online arbitration in commercial transactions and analysing the potential adoption of technology assisted arbitration e.g. Basic ODR systems and Intelligent Advanced ODR systems in resolving certain types of international commercial and consumer disputes. It then investigates the legal obstacles to adopting ODR by examining the compatibility of technology with current legislation and regulatory development. Finally, it suggests appropriate legal and technological measures to promote the recognition of ODR in particular online arbitration for cross border commercial and consumer disputes. By exploring both the theoretical framework and the practical considerations of online arbitration, this book will be a vital reference for lawyers, policy makers, government officials, industry professionals and academics who are involved with online arbitration. Arbitration in Switzerland Dr. Manuel

Arroyo, 2018-08-06 Arbitration in Switzerland Michigan Journal of International Law, 2011 Climate Change

Litigation Wolfgang Kahl, Marc-Philippe Weller, 2022-03-22 Kahl Weller Climate Change Litigation. This handbook investigates and discusses the respective issues arising in the current discourse on climate protection from different legal perspectives including international law, European law and national public and civil law. In particular, it addresses the issue of climate protection by courts. It gives an overview about important jurisdictions in the field of Climate Change Litigation including inter alia the US, Canada, Australia, UK, France, The Netherlands, Italy, Brazil and Germany. The book aims to pave the way for research in the field of climate change litigation, which up to this point has surprisingly remained untrodden ground in Germany or Europe. Furthermore, it is guaranteed to provide an overview of the latest news in cases and progress in the field of climate change litigation. National Arbitration Laws Hans Smit, 2010 International Investment

Arbitration Mohamed A.M. Ismail, 2016-04-22 Arbitration is the most common mechanism for disputes settlement in developing countries. Following the move to free market economies, arbitration will play an increasingly fundamental role in order to protect foreign investors in the Middle East and North African Region (MENA). This book examines the pulse and dynamics of international investment arbitration and the new era of mediation in state contracts in the region. The author explores the harmonization of international arbitration and the sensitive issue of le Contrat Administratif in Middle East civil law countries. The volume also discusses the pivotal role of international organizations such as UNCTAD and ICSID in codifying fair and prompt mechanisms for dispute settlement. Using Latin American countries as a prime example of how international legislative instruments serve international investment law principles and comparing Latin American experiences, where appropriate, the book demonstrates how lessons can be learned in respect of alternative dispute resolution, international commercial arbitration and investor states arbitration. It provides suggestions and recommendations for the future and includes useful appendices detailing recent worldwide trends, regional and international instruments in the arbitration world. A Guide to the IBA Rules on the Taking of Evidence in International Arbitration Roman
