Going Green Sally Stenhouse Kneidel, Sadie Kneidel, 2008 Going Green focuses on the biggest environmental culprits of the Western lifestyle diet housing clothing and transportation providing practical and effective steps we can all take to reduce our carbon footprint and live more sustainably This comprehensive text is written with an approachable and empowering tone drawing on personal interviews and real life examples to demonstrate both the challenges and rewards of making environmentally responsible choices Informative and inspiring Going Green will make you think twice about every dollar you spend

British Romanticism and the Archive David Kerler, 2022-06-06 Taking its cue from Jacques Derrida s concept of le mal d archive this study explores the interrelations between the experience of loss melancholia archives and their self destructive tendencies surfacing in different forms of spectrality in selected poetry of British Romanticism It argues that the British Romantics were highly influenced by the period s archival fever manifesting itself in various historical material technological and cultural aspects and implicitly reflected and engaged with these discourses and materialities medialities in their works This is scrutinized by focusing on two basal closely related facets the subject s feverish desire to archive and the archive's self-destructive tendencies which may also surface in an ambivalent melancholic relishing in the archived object's presence within its absence Through this new theoretical perspective details and coherence previously gone unnoticed shall be laid bare ultimately contributing to a new and more profound understanding of British Romanticism's It will be shown that the various discursive and material manifestations of archives and archival practices not only echo the period's technological cultural and historical developments along with its incisive experiencing of loss but also fundamentally determine Romantic subjectivity and aesthetics
