The Cambridge Handbook of World Englishes Daniel Schreier, Marianne Hundt, Edgar W. Schneider, 2020-01-02 The plural form Englishes conveys the diversity of English as a global language pinpointing the growth and existence of a large number of national regional and social forms The global spread of English and the new varieties that have emerged around the world has grown to be a vast area of study and research which intersects multiple disciplines This Handbook provides a comprehensive and authoritative survey of World Englishes from 1600 to the present day Covering topics such as variationist sociolinguistics pragmatics contact linguistics linguistic anthropology corpus and applied linguistics and language history it combines discussion of traditional topics with a variety of innovative approaches The chapters all written by internationally acclaimed authorities provide up to date discussions of the evolution of different Englishes around the globe a comprehensive coverage of different models and approaches and some original perspectives on current challenges

Transmedia Television Elizabeth Evans, 2011-02-25 Transmedia Television uses empirical audience research to explore attitudes towards the dramatic changes that television has undergone since the turn of the twenty first century due to the development of digital technologies It asks to what extent audiences are embracing these changes and what television means in a multiplatform media landscape

Mapping Spaces Ulrike Gehring, Peter Weibel, 2014 The ZKM throws new light on 17th century landscape painting Comparable to modern satellite surveying GPS true to scale landscape representation is also indebted to the interdisciplinary exchange of knowledge the alliance of geodesists mathematicians instrument makers and painters Artists had designed modern surveying systems long before new media drew on images from outer space The exhibition Mapping Spaces examines for the first time ever on this scale the influence of early modern guide books in geography the science of surveying and the construction of fortification on Dutch painting around 1650 The prelude to the project developed at the University of Trier is Pieter Snayers large format depiction of historical battle scenes in which maps and landscape paintings are projected over one another so as to document the most recent developments in modern engineering ballistics and the fortification construction Over 220 exhibits among them paintings surveying instruments graphics devices books maps and globes drawn from the most important collections of works such as from the Prado Madrid the Louvre Paris the Rijksmuseum Amsterdam or the Kunsthistorischen Museum Vienna testify to these new theses in pictorial science The new mapping of an early modern area of knowledge is accompanied by contemporary works of art that thematize the influence of technological developments on our present day perception of space Museum website
