Thieves & Kings Mark Oakley,2008      In Olden Days - Legends of Rochdale and its Neighbourhood Rev. G. R. Oakley,2016-01-28 Rev George Robert Oakley 1864 1932 was born in Dublin but his family moved to Yorkshire when he was an infant He was educated at Sheffield Royal Grammar School and St Aidan s Theological College Birkinhead When the church of St Andrew s Dearnley was completed in 1895 he became the first vicar of that church During this time he collected together the myths and legends of the local area for this book In 1923 he became the Vicar of St Mary the Virgin Illingworth returning over the border into Yorkshire until his death      Floor Rules Mark W. Geiger,2024-10-29 A compelling account of how markets really govern themselves and why they often baffle and outrage outsiders One of the reasons many people believe financial markets are lawless and irrational and rigged is that they follow two sets of rules The official rules set by law or by the heads of the exchanges exist alongside the unofficial rules or floor rules which are the ones that actually govern Break the official rules and you may be fined or jailed break the floor rules and you ll suffer worse you will be ostracized

Regulations vary across markets but the floor rules are remarkably consistent This book offering compelling stories of market disturbances in which insider rules played a key role shows readers without excessive moralizing how markets really govern themselves It is a study of the norms customs values and operating modes of the insiders at the center of the financial markets that trade money stocks bonds futures and other financial derivatives The core insiders who rule trading markets are a relatively small group who exert disproportionate influence on financial systems Mark W Geiger examines the historical roots of the culture of financial markets describes the role insiders play in today s high finance and suggests where this peculiar ingrown culture is heading in an era of constant technological change
