Event Sponsorship Ian McDonnell, Malcolm Moir,2013-12-04 This introduction to Event Sponsorship provides students with an essential understanding of the important role of sponsorship in an event how this can be gained and successfully managed to the benefit of both the sponsor and sponsee. The text starts with an investigation of the origins of sponsorship and then considers all important elements of Events sponsorship management. It considers what sponsorship is, its history and evolution, what its marketing uses are, how it can be used efficiently, the benefits it can bring to an event and how its results can be measured. It also considers other funding sources for events including government grants, crowd source funding and merchandising. To reflect changes in the way firms communicate with their customers there is a strong focus on the use of social media, e-marketing and technology in sponsorship. The text uniquely considers topics of sponsorship from the perspective of both the sponsor and the sponsee, the event to provide a holistic view of the sponsorship process. Case Studies are integrated throughout to show how both small and large scale events have successfully gained and used sponsorship as well as potential pitfalls to avoid. Learning outcomes, discussion questions and further reading suggestions are included to aid navigation throughout the book. Spur critical thinking and further students' knowledge. This is essential reading for all students studying Events Management.

This book offers a comprehensive account of social media as a tool for connecting the world and how its amoeboid growth pattern has led it to where it is today. This book explores both the promise and the pitfalls of social media. From its role in participatory politics, crowd sourced crisis response and cultural promotion to its misuse in everyday life, it examines the expanding impact of social platforms. Through a thought provoking analysis, it asks: How do we channel this power meaningfully in the age of relentless digital integration? It suggests that the solution is not to disconnect but to reimagine connection with responsibility, awareness and purpose. The book will be specifically valuable for students, teachers and practitioners of Communication and Media, Public Policy, Public Administration, Sociology and General Management.
