Emmy Winners College Rankings This Month:

Indianapolis Monthly, 2001-11 Indianapolis Monthly is the Circle City's essential chronicle and guide, an indispensable authority on what's new and what's news. Through coverage of politics, crime, dining, style, business, sports, and arts and entertainment, each issue offers compelling narrative stories and lively, urbane coverage of Indy's cultural landscape. The Emmys Thomas O'Neil, 1998 The ultimate unofficial guide to the battle of TV's best shows and greatest stars, revised and updated to include the latest Emmy gossip. First in a new series of books from Variety magazine. The Emmys is the first unofficial guide to America's most beloved TV shows and the awards they did or didn't win. Features year-by-year accounts of the Emmy's most dramatic victories and biggest surprises. Complete listings of more than 6,000 winners in prime time, daytime, sports, news, movies, and documentaries. Who's won the most awards, including Emmy records held by The Mary Tyler Moore Show, Cheers, LA Law, All in the Family, The Dick Van Dyke Show, Hill Street Blues, The Young and the Restless, Sesame Street, Oprah, and ABC's Wide World of Sports. Who's never won and why. Susan Lucci, Angela Lansbury, and others keep striking out just like lifelong losers Jackie Gleason and Ed Sullivan. How winning Emmys saved Cheers, Cagney, Lacey, Mission: Impossible, Santa Barbara, and other top shows. The Performance Complex David Stark, 2020-07-10 Chapter 1 from this book is published open access and free to read or download from Oxford Academic. What's valuable? Market competition provides one kind of answer. Competitions offer another. On one side, competition is an ongoing and seemingly endless process of pricings; on the other, competitions are discrete and bounded in time and location with entry rules, judges, scores, and prizes. This book examines what happens when ever more activities in domains of everyday life are evaluated and experienced in terms of performance metrics. Unlike organized competitions, such systems are ceaseless and without formal entry. Instead of producing resolutions, their scorings create addictions. To understand these developments, this book explores discrete contests: architectural competitions, international music competitions, and world press photo competitions. Shows how the continuous updating of rankings is both a device for navigating the social world and an engine of anxiety, and examines the production of such anxiety in settings ranging from the pedagogy of performance in business schools to struggling musicians coping with new performance metrics in online platforms. In the performance society, networks of observation in which all are performing and keeping score are entangled with a system of emotionally charged preoccupations with one's positioning within the rankings. From the bedroom to the boardroom, pharmaceutical companies and management consultants promise enhanced performance. This assemblage of metrics, networks, and their attendant emotional pathologies is herein regarded as the performance complex. Film Score Monthly, 1999 Information Needs of Communities Steven Waldman, 2011-09 In 2009, a bipartisan Knight Commission found that while the broadband age is enabling an info and commun renaissance, local communities in particular are being unevenly served with critical info about local issues. Soon after the Knight Commission delivered its findings, the FCC initiated a working group to identify crosscurrent and trend and
