and a short throw for the projected image. The new revolutionary WT610 short throw projector from NEC has the world's shortest throw distance ever for the projector and audience can move about freely in front of the projector without risking other people. The WT610 also has a compact design and is ideal for small offices, classrooms and retail environments. The NEC MultiSync WT610 projector is the perfect projector for classrooms, schools, offices, retail environments, and more.

The WT610 is the perfect fit for tight audience office meetings, classrooms and retail environments where there is limited room and space for the screen. Business meetings require frame-to-frame projection which while needed front projection requires a three-dimensional view. The WT610 HD panel projection unit is a 3D™ image technology™ display in less than half inch thickness. In retail settings, screen space is at a premium and the WT610 can be used to enhance displays, retail greetings and video displays can enhance customer interaction without reducing the merchandising display area. In an educational environment, the projector can be moved to any spot off the class room that teacher needs to interact with the students without occupying valuable space on front of the projected image.

1) The measured distance and image size are maximum of the lens and calculated with an aspect ratio of 16:9.
