Critical Essays on Arthur Morrison and the East End Diana Maltz, 2022-07-26 In 1896 author Arthur Morrison gained notoriety for his bleak and violent A Child of the Jago a slum novel that captured the desperate struggle to survive among London's poorest. When a reviewer accused Morrison of exaggerating the depravity of the neighborhood on which the Jago was based he incited the era's most contentious public debate about the purpose of realism and the responsibilities of the novelist. In his self-defense and in his wider body of work Morrison demonstrated not only his investments as a formal artist but also his awareness of social questions. As the first critical essay collection on Arthur Morrison and the East End this book assesses Morrison's contributions to late Victorian culture especially discourses around English working class life. Chapters evaluate Morrison in the context of Victorian criminality child welfare disability housing professionalism and slum photography. Morrison's works are also reexamined in the light of writings by Sir Walter Besant, Clementina Black, Charles Booth, Charles Dickens, George Gissing and Margaret Harkness. This volume features an introduction and 11 chapters by preeminent and emerging scholars of the East End. They employ a variety of critical methodologies drawing on their respective expertise in literature history, art history, sociology and geography. Critical Essays on Arthur Morrison and the East End throws fresh new light on this innovative novelist of poverty and urban life.

The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Urban Literary Studies Jeremy Tambling, 2022-10-29 This encyclopaedia will be an indispensable resource and recourse for all who are thinking about cities and the urban and the relation of cities to literature and to ways of writing about cities. Covering a vast terrain this work will include entries on theorists, individual writers, individual cities, countries, cities in relation to the arts, film and music, urban space, pre-early and modern cities, concepts and movements and definitions amongst others. Written by an international team of contributors this will be the first resource of its kind to pull together such a comprehensive overview of the field.

Cleansing the City Michelle Elizabeth Allen, 2008 Cleansing the City: Sanitary Geographies in Victorian London explores not only the challenges faced by reformers as they strove to clean up an increasingly filthy city but the resistance to their efforts. Beginning in the 1830s reform-minded citizens under the banner of sanitary improvement plunged into London's dark and dirty spaces and returned with the material they needed to promote public health legislation and magnificent projects of sanitary engineering. Sanitary reform however was not always met with unqualified enthusiasm. While some improvements such as slum clearances, the development of sewerage and the embankment of the Thames may have made London a cleaner place to live these projects also destroyed and reshaped the built environment and in doing so altered the meanings and experiences of the city. From the novels of Charles Dickens and George Gissing to anonymous magazine articles and pamphlets, resistance to reform found expression in the nostalgic appreciation of a threatened urban landscape and anxiety about domestic autonomy in an era of networked sanitary services Cleansing the City emphasizes the disruptions and disorientation occasioned by purification a process we are generally inclined to see as positive By recovering these sometimes oppositional sometimes ambivalent responses Michelle Allen elevates a significant undercurrent of Victorian thought into the mainstream and thus provides insight into the contested nature of sanitary modernization
