Costco 2025 Returns:

Cheapskate in Lotusland Steve Burgess, 2026-01-06 Cheapskate in Lotusland is an entertaining and exuberant testament to the philosophy and practice of frugality and an invitation to live better by living within one's means. Set in Vancouver one of North America's most expensive cities, this wry and insightful book offers writer Steve Burgess's account of living well without ever earning much. With over three decades in Vancouver, Steve Burgess has watched his rent more than triple while his income has stubbornly hovered in the same bracket. By some financial measures, he qualifies as poor. Yet with a home near Stanley Park, a well-stocked kitchen, money saved, and plenty of stamps in his passport, he is, by most measures that matter, doing just fine. Blending personal memoir, economic philosophy, and sharp social observation, this book explores frugality as a way of life rather than a sacrifice. From mastering grocery store bargains to questioning the relentless push of consumerism, the author offers lessons in living comfortably on less without deprivation or despair. Along the way, he engages with experts, literature, and other everyday people to reveal how financial security isn't always about numbers; it's about priorities, perspective, and knowing the value of a good pair of shoes.

Reframing Organizations Lee G. Bolman, 2026-01-27 A proven framework for effective leadership, newly updated and revised. The new 8th edition of Reframing Organizations provides powerful, time-tested guidance for organizational leadership. Rooted in decades of social science research, Bolman and Deal's four frame model has withstood the test of time with its accessible and incisive ideas for navigating complexity and turbulence. The latest research from organizational theory, organizational behavior, psychology, sociology, and political science is enlivened with new cases that illustrate real-world applications of the concepts in the book. The new edition is updated with material on current topics like AI, job crafting, agility, gig work, and intersectionality. The book continues to engage readers with clear and lively writing. Since its creation more than 40 years ago, Bolman and Deal's four frame model has become a widely used and influential framework for leadership, sense-making, cross-sector collaboration, and navigating organizational complexity. Readers will find in-depth explorations of Bolman and Deal's Structural, Human Resource, Political, and Symbolic frames. Vivid and instructive case examples of prominent leaders and organizations, including Elon Musk at DOGE, Reed Hastings at Netflix, Mary Barra at General Motors, House Speaker Kevin McCarthy, Hilton Hotels, and video game maker Valve, and accessible summaries of some of the most important and influential works in research on organizations and leadership. Coverage of important similarities and differences across business, government, education, and not-for-profit organizations. Reframing Organizations is a must-read for students, managers, executives, and anyone seeking powerful and provocative ways to read organizational dynamics and lead effectively in a challenging and turbulent world. Bolman and Deal blend research, theory, and practice to offer readers insights and strategies for achieving both personal and organizational goals.
