Balcazar,2025-08-05 Hector G Balcazar s first book No Wonder The Art of Creating a New World started a new dialogue for building a more hopeful future in which humanity cares for one another s wellbeing using the Community Health Worker model In that first book which took the form of a memoir the author uses his work in public health to present his vision to build communities utilizing a bridge of human connection Utilizing a storytelling approach Erasing Historical Invisibility Creating a Compassionate World further elevates the concept of humanity caring for one another and building a more hopeful future With themes such as erasing historical invisibility and creating a compassionate world the author examines the story of our past and presents a positive framework for the future With Erasing Historical Invisibility the author takes a historical perspective as to why humanity has not yet advanced to increase the human spirit He suggests humanity has utilized an old recipe which distracts the collective maturity from evolving The reader is invited to learn about the old recipe the role of human invisibility and what new recipes are needed In Erasing Historical Invisibility the author describes humanity as a conqueror species and how humanity evolved to create human invisibility Using the Roman Empire Mexico and the United States as examples the author presents the need for dismantling the old recipe Showcasing themes such as re examining our human collective experience moving towards regional and community life and the concept of antidotes to build new model frameworks for creating a collective maturity and a safe world

Christianity Contested Paul Copan,Stewart Kelly,2024-12-30 Although Christianity has significantly influenced many of Western civilization's cherished ideals and values it faces ongoing criticism regarding its truth, goodness, and beauty. Critics argue that Christianity is at odds with science, human flourishing, and the dignity of women; that it is disconnected from modern views on sexuality; and that its Scriptures support slavery and genocide. They also claim that the historical evidence for Jesus' bodily resurrection is weak and his claims of exclusivity are narrow-minded. Additionally, the problem of evil and the hiddenness of God are major points of contention. In response, a group of scholars has provided a comprehensive, well-reasoned, yet accessible resource to address these accusations for both the church and the broader public.

Life is short, so explore a multitude of fascinating historical, biographical, scientific, political, and financial topics in only an hour each. Nero Claudius Caesar holds a reputation as a tyrant, a maniacal leader. Some say he may have suffered from lead poisoning and gone mad, but most historical sources quickly dismiss this excuse for his cruelty. Various historical accounts record that Nero had his own mother killed, persecuted Christians, and ordered the setting of Rome's Great Fire. While many debate what is fact and what is fiction, the last ruler of the Julio-Claudian dynasty is certainly one of the most infamous leaders of the Roman Empire. This brief history explores what we know about the man behind the myth and the monster within the man.
