Germans to the Front

David Clay Large,2000-11-09 In Germans to the Front David Large charts the path from Germany's total demilitarization immediately after World War II to the appearance of the Bundeswehr the West German army in 1956 The book is the first comprehensive study in English of West German rearmament during this critical period Large's analysis of the complex interplay between the diplomatic and domestic facets of the rearmament debate illuminates key elements in the development of the Cold War and in Germany's ongoing difficulty in formulating a role for itself on the international scene Rearmament severely tested West Germany's new parliamentary institutions dramatically defined emerging power relationships in German politics and posed a crucial challenge for the NATO alliance Although the establishment of the Bundeswehr ultimately helped stabilize the nation the acrimony surrounding its formation generated deep divisions in German society that persisted long after the army took the field According to Large the conflict was so bitter because rearmament forced a confrontation with fundamental questions of national identity and demanded a painful reckoning with the past

The East German Army Thomas M. Forster,2021-01-26 This book first published in 1980 provides a detailed analysis of the East German army in the last decade of the Cold War It examines the capabilities of the main force after the Soviet army in the Soviet Bloc and shows how it depended on more things than purely military factors and national policies It focuses the army as part of a society that had been comprehensively militarized through socialist military education and shows that it was closely tied to the Soviet army with no military doctrine of its own In this way this book provides an analysis of not just East German domestic policies over which its army held great sway but also of Soviet Bloc strategic planning for conflict in Western Europe      The Library Catalogs of the Hoover Institution on War, Revolution, and Peace, Stanford University Hoover Institution on War, Revolution, and Peace,1969
