Peasants and the Ethiopian State Getie Gelaye,2000 This study investigates Ethiopia s recent agrarian reforms as reflected in Amharic oral poetry Its innovative approach yields fascinating insights Taking an Agricultural Producers Cooperative in Yetnora East Gojam as an example the author gives an informed and convincing account of peasant attitudes as reflected in oral poetry The study of Amharic poems and songs reveals that from a peasant perspective the 1975 land reform and the subsequent legislation involved contradictory and self defeating elements Much of the disappointment with the Derg s agrarian policies can be attributed to poorly planned and high handed state interventionism which aimed to modernise rural society without taking peasants feelings attitudes aspirations and views into due consideration
