Our Crew Australian Ancestors:

So Long to Learn , Our Crew George Townsend,2015-11-27 This is the story of our ancestors in Australia some forcibly transported to the colony of New South Wales for life and those that chose to come as free settlers Some are well known including the Bushell and Rose families of which much has been written William Crew has been chosen as the starting point of this story hence the book s title Our Crew Researching and writing about our ancestors has brought them to life for me I try to imagine what they were like how they looked Did any of us my siblings and I inherit their physical and mental characteristics I wonder about their lifestyles aspirations triumphs and disasters How did they feel about their partners What were their expectations of their children I visited places where they lived worshipped and worked Even though the landscape has changed houses are now built on lands that they cultivated the bush has been cleared I imagine they are still there At least in my mind they are Writing this has brought a mixture of emotions I wish I had known those in my family who had came before me And I wish I had found out more from those in my family I knew It has made me determined to record the events of the past so that my descendants can gain an understanding of those that came before us So here it is warts and all I hope my ancestors would be proud of my efforts in bringing them to life in our eyes Reminiscences of Twenty-five Years' Yachting in Australia Sir William Henry Bunney,1888 Brief History of Singapore and Malaysia Christopher

Hale,2023-03-21 The fascinating account of two former British colonies with a shared past but vastly different identities today Singapore and Malaysia sit astride the sea lanes linking East with West vital choke points in the world s commerce Since ancient times ports along the Silk Road of the Sea were populated by peoples from around the globe who came here to trade and live carried by the steady flow of goods and the ever present monsoon winds Author Christopher Hale recounts many fascinating histories of this region including The ancient international trade in spices and the seven voyages to the southern seas of the Chinese eunuch Admiral Zheng He in the 15th century The rise of Islamic kingdoms along rivers bordering the Straits of Malacca and the conquest of Malacca one of the world s largest cities by a few hundred Portuguese marauders in 1511 The saga of Sir Stamford Raffles credited with founding Singapore and the development of tin mines and vast rubber and oil palm plantations on the Malay Peninsula The disastrous fall of Fortress Singapore to the Japanese in World War II after only three weeks of fighting the worst British military defeat in history The wildly successful film Crazy Rich Asians set in Singapore the highest grossing romantic comedy of the decade A Brief History of Singapore and Malaysia tells these and many other compelling stories about the people and events which have shaped these nations as they developed into modern powerhouses of international trade and tourism The Discovery of Australia George Collingridge,1895 Ancestry of the Children of Robert Croll Stevens and Jane Eleanor (Knauss) Stevens: The genealogy of Christian Gottlob Knauss, 1830-1885 ,1988 Research Through, With and As Storying Louise Gwenneth Phillips,Tracey Bunda,2018-01-19 Research Through With and As Storying explores how Indigenous and non Indigenous scholars can engage with storying as a tool that disassembles conventions of research The authors explore the concept of storying across different cultures times and places and discuss principles of storying and storying research considering Indigenous feminist and critical theory standpoints Through the book Phillips and Bunda provide an invitation to locate storying as a valuable ontological epistemological and methodological contribution to the academy across disciplines arguing that storying research gives voice to the marginalised in the academy Providing rich and interesting coverage of the approaches to the field of storying research from Aboriginal and white Australian perspectives this text seeks to enable a profound understanding of the significance of stories and storying This book will prove valuable for scholars students and practitioners who seek to develop alternate and creative contributions to the production of knowledge Australia's First Fleet Jonathan King,1988 In the Australian Bush and on the Coast of the Coral Sea Richard Wolfgang Semon,1899
