Newton, 2022 Special Bibliography, 1982 After the Glory Donald Robert Shaffer, 2004 Shaffer chronicles the postwar transition of black veterans from the Union army as well as their subsequent life patterns political involvement family and marital life experiences with social welfare comradeship with other veterans and memories of the war itself He draws on such sources as Civil War pension records to fashion a collective biography a social history of both ordinary and notable lives resurrecting the words and memories of many black veterans to provide an intimate view of their lives and struggles BOOK JACKET Hopes and Expectations Barbara J. Beeching, 2016-12-29 Winner of the 2017 Homer D Babbidge Jr Award presented by the Association for the Study of Connecticut History Based on a treasure trove of more than two hundred personal letters written in the 1860s Hopes and Expectations tells the story of three young African Americans in the North Living on Maryland's eastern shore schoolteacher Rebecca Primus sent home weeklies to her parents in Hartford and also corresponded with friend Addie Brown a domestic worker back home Addie wrote voluminously to Rebecca lamenting their separation and describing her struggle to achieve a semblance of security and stability Around the same time Rebecca's brother Nelson began writing home about his new life in Boston as he set out to make a name and a career for himself as an artist The letters describe their daily lives and touch on race class gender religion and politics offering rare entry into individual black lives at that time Through extensive archival research Barbara J Beeching also shows how the story of the Primus family intersects with changes over time in Hartford's black community and the country Newspapers and census tracts as well as probate land court and vital records help her trace an arc of local black fortunes between 1830 and 1880 Seeking full equality blacks sought refinement and respectability through home ownership literacy and social gains One of the many paradoxes Beeching uncovers is that just as the Civil War was tearing the nation apart a recognizable black middle class was emerging in Hartford It is a story of individuals family and community of expectation and disappointment loss and endurance change and continuity Freedom Journey Edythe Ann Quinn,2015-01-31 Through wonderfully detailed letters recruit rosters and pension records Edythe Ann Quinn shares the story of thirty five African American Civil War soldiers and the United States Colored Troop USCT regiments with which they served Associated with The Hills community in Westchester County New York the soldiers served in three regiments the 29th Connecticut Infantry 14th Rhode Island Heavy Artillery 11th USCT and the 20th USCT The thirty sixth Hills man served in the Navy Their ties to family land church school and occupational experiences at home buffered the brutal indifference of boredom and battle the ravages of illness the deprivations of unequal pay and the hostility of some commissioned officers and white troops At the same time their service among kith and kin bolstered their determination and pride They marched together first as raw recruits and finally as seasoned veterans welcomed home by generals politicians and above all their families and friends The Connecticut Historical Society Bulletin ,1994 Out of the Briars A.
