Theatre & War Nandita Dinesh, 2019-07-05 In Theatre she describes various projects that she has undertaken on the ground she theorizes strategies that might be useful to other practitioner researchers who are involved in similar work In this sequel of sorts Dinesh chooses to return to the same themes of theatre of war But this time she intentionally crafts her notes from afar From somewhere outside the field From somewhere outside the practice And yet a somewhere that is consumed by the field And the practice Through writing that seeks to do through writing that seeks to perform Dinesh use different voices in this book Voices that come from more traditional archival sources which are then re conceptualized as drama Voices that come from sources that occupy the space between archived and lived experience which are then shaped into creative vignettes Voices that come from Dinesh s repertoire her own lived experiences that are then crafted as flash fiction about past present future collaborators By weaving together variously positioned experiences and voices through creative re interpretations Theatre it is also a book that could be performed Revisiting Insider-Outsider Research in Comparative and International Education Michael Crossley, Lore Arthur, Elizabeth McNess, 2015-11-01 This volume recognises how many researchers across the social sciences and in comparative and international education in particular see themselves as insiders or outsiders or more pertinently shifting combinations of both in the research process The book revisits and problematises these concepts in an era where the global mobility of researchers and ideas has increased dramatically and when advances in comparative qualitative research methodologies seek to be more inclusive collaborative participatory reflexive and nuanced Collectively the chapters argue that in the context of such change it has become more difficult to categorise and label groups and individuals as being inside or outside systems professional communities or research environments In doing so it is recognised that individual and group identities can be multiple flexible and changing such that the boundary between the inside and the outside is permeable less stable and less easy to draw The book draws upon an exciting collection of original research carried out in a diversity of educational systems from British European Latin American Indian Ocean South Asian African and Chinese contexts and cultures This develops a deep and innovative reconsideration of key issues that must be faced by all researchers involved in the planning and conduct of in depth field research This is a challenging and stimulating methodological contribution designed to advance critical and reflective thinking while providing practical and accessible guidance insights and support for new and experienced researchers within and beyond the field of comparative and international education Retrieving the Crip Outsider Someshwar Sati, 2024-03-30 Why are abnormal figures at the heart of literary canon and what do they tell us about the society that writes and circulates these stories This book studies the constitution of disability and discusses concepts of corporeal difference that are socio historically rooted in the Indian cultural milieu The volume aims at looking at the central issue of the various aspects of disability representation the impact of these representations on the materially embodied experience of disablement the political imperatives shaping the narratives of corporeal difference and the influences of highly particularised local cultural context on the constitution of epistemic and discursive notions of corporeality The volume follows three routes of inquiry How do we find disability in texts or what are disability texts How do we read concepts historically using literary and cultural texts and what would a similar study of the Indian context reveal How do we study culturally distinct ways of narrating bodyminds These questions will be answered through a discussion of representation histories of the abnormal informed by histories of disease conditions and its representations with the aim of developing ways of thinking and talking about concepts of corporeal difference that are socio culturally and socio historically located away from the western context and to explore the intersections between gender caste religion sexuality class and disability The Culture of Learning Virginia Macken Fitzsimons, Mary Lebreck Kelley, 1996 Glencoe Literature, Grade 12, Interactive Reading Workbook McGraw-Hill Education, 2002-05-10 The Interactive Reading Workbook provides two guided learning opportunities per selection for students to practice word study vocabulary spelling comprehension and critical thinking skills as they read
