Marxism is the only way to achieve this goal — to build a new society — a society where the oppressed and exploited people of the world will be free.

in the Pacific Rim Kate Barclay, Wayne Peake, 2005      Encyclopedia of Modern Ethnic Conflicts Joseph Russell Rudolph, 2003 Each of 38 ethnic conflicts is presented with a timeline and extensive essay covering the conflict's details historical background management and significance This book is the perfect starting point for students and general readers seeking information about the complex and often violent forces that have changed and continue to change the world's political landscape      Endgame, Volume 2 Derrick Jensen, 2006-06-06 Incensed and hopeful impassioned and lucid this volume focuses on mankind's ability to adapt to the impending ecological revolution      Education Make You Fick, Innit? Martin Allen, Patrick Ainley, 2007 This book connects teachers and students in schools colleges and universities in England and Wales to ask what has happened to education in a mass system of lifelong learning from primary to postgraduate schooling It explains how allegations of dumbing down and deskilling contrast with claims of rising standards for a world class workforce showing how education has become the main means of social control in an increasingly divided and self destructive society Rather than emancipating the minds of future generations it forecloses their possibilities In this sense Education Make You Fick Innit Ainley and Allen argue that to understand how this occurred and what can be done about it the system has to be understood as a whole What is happening in schools makes sense only in relation to similar systems of management and control in FE and HE where privatisation in particular is in many ways more advanced They detail successive perversions of the comprehensive ideal for schools to the latest personalisation agenda that stretches across the new raised leaving age of 18 showing how competition and control combine to set institutions and individuals against one another in a market for inflated qualifications They reject the relentless testing and selection of students in prolonged training that still does not guarantee employment From their experience of teaching and researching in schools FE and HE the authors call for democratic control to reverse privatisation and maintain free provision so as to remain true to the Enlightenment ideal of understanding society in order to change it      International Journal of Peace Studies, 2001

Narrative Voices and the Liberation Movement in the Mexican State of Chiapas Wendy Caldwell, 2004 This book focuses on a series of indigenista novels of Chiapas Mexico published between 1957 and 1994 and examines these works of fiction as mirrors of important social political and economic realities plaguing contemporary Mexican society in particular Chiapas From this narrative sequence a liberationist discourse emerges that reflects the ideas of Liberation Theology and its approach to the plight of the poor The authors portray a set of obstacles that impede the liberation process and in doing so project movement toward the authentic liberation of the native inhabitants of their novels Through the theoretical framework of liberation thought this book shows how literature specifically the novel can transcend the boundaries of genre and transform itself into a participant in the debate on multiethnic identity in Mexico With the 1994 uprising led by the Zapatista Army of National Liberation Chiapas has become a global symbol for marginalized voices that struggle to gain a legitimate space in Mexican society The novels treated in the book outline the context which led to the YA BASTA of the EZLN The
